OF ONE HEART AND MIND

Reading about the faith of the early Christian believers can be a real inspiration to those of us who have been Christians for a long time, as well as for those who are newly baptized. Can you imagine people if this world being “of one heart and mind” as was the first community of believers? Today’s first letter of John seems to hold the key to how this can be accomplished. Keeping God’s commandments and loving all of God’s children seems to be the start of being “of one heart and mind.” We live in a world that stresses differences—differences among religions, among races, between genders, and among economic classes. Today we are summoned to focus on what we all share in common on this fragile planet of ours.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The community of believers was of one heart and mind (Acts 4:32-35).

Psalms — Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting (Psalm 118).

Second Reading Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God (1 John 5:1-6).

Gospel — The risen Christ comes to his disciples with peace and Spirit. (John 20:19-31).

THE RESURRECTION AND THE GOOD NEWS

Where would I be, what kind of person would I be if Jesus had not risen from the dead? I think most of us would be selfish people and without great purpose.

The Resurrection of Christ transformed death into new life. St. Peter's life was transformed from one of fear into great courage, hope and conviction. The graces of Easter are transforming and we too are asked to witness to the good news. Let us throw aside also the cloak of timidity and put on the cloak of hope and discipline.

St. Peter in his Epistle (1 Peter 3:15) tells us "Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence." We are all called to evangelize and we can do this in simple ways in our everyday lives.

Everyday Evangelizing:

- * Say "I will pray for you" to a co-worker who has shared some personal concern or difficulty.
- * Respond "Thank God" when someone shares a success story with you.
- * Make the sign of the cross as you pray before a meal in a restaurant.
- * Display a religious article in your office or home.
- * Ask someone you have hurt for forgiveness.
- * Invite someone who has been away from the Church for a while to attend Mass with you.
- * Marriages and baptisms are wonderful opportunities for evangelizing. Make sure you make those in attendance who are non-Catholic feel comfortable by explaining the ritual ahead of time.
- * Talk to friends and co-workers about the good experiences you have had with the Church.
- * Take time in our life for those who are suffering or in need. Remember, people are more important than tasks.
- * When you see God working in your life, point it out to others. We are enriched by the personal witness of others.
- * Introduce yourself to new comers in the neighborhood and ask if they will be looking for a Church to attend. If they are Catholics, offer to accompany them to their first Mass at our parish.
- * Warmly greet others at Mass whom you do not know. Sometimes members of our community fall away from the Church because they feel alienated from others in the congregation.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Christian Family Movement

Are you aware that there is a family group here at our Parish? We have started a chapter of The Christian Family Movement (CFM) at our Parish to bring together a network of families. CFM affirms Catholic families by providing discussion, guidance, and support for today's busy family.

The fellowship CFM fosters helps families to feel a sense of community when they attend church. We are looking to expand upon the fellowship, faith, and fun this ministry has brought to over 25 Parish families.

If you would like to learn more, call Robin & Steve Matthews at (530) 885-8968.

Bible Study: The Bible study classes that were originally scheduled for the large conference room on Monday mornings has moved to the Chapel at St. Teresa of Avila Church. Again, they are held on Monday mornings from 9:30 to 11:00am.

TREASURE COVE

This is where sand tickles your toes and balmy breezes blow! C'mon, let's discover the riches of God's grace in Jesus!

June 26th to June 30th

8:45am to 12:30pm Parish hall
for Children Entering Kindergarten to 5th Grade

Join our great treasure hunt! Every day kids go on a treasure hunt, digging into Scripture, which reveals the greatest treasure of all—Jesus Christ. Your tropical adventure begins at Find-the-Treasure Opening where kids sing, pray, and start the day. They meet Chester the Treasure Chest, hear about his lost gems, and agree to help find them. Here kids also meet their Search Parties and their Treasure Seekers who lead their group rotating to six fun activity sites. At each site they collect a clue to find the treasure. Finally, everyone gathers at Claim-Your-Treasure Closing to sing, pray, explore a mission project, unscramble clues, and find the treasure. As kids dig into every Treasure Cove site, they discover Jesus!
