Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 3, 2006

Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls.
— James 1:21b

TRADITION

Tradition is long human memory set, not in stone, but in human interaction. Without this active memory, the bonds of relationship and affection fray and fall apart. Communities dissolve as surely as neglected buildings do. After participating in events, celebrations, and even small rituals, we remark about how good it is to gather and remember.

Today's readings remind us of foundations laid deeper than the human will to relate. Today we hear about God's will to relate to us—to be our God as we are called to be God's own beloved people.

Today in three readings and three ways we remember the covenant bonds that create us as a people and the obligation and responsibility that express the innermost attitude of soul. You are mine. I am yours. These are God's words that created a people as surely as "Let there be light" created the sun and moon and all the stars.

- Sunday: Is 35:4-7a; Ps 146; Jas 2:1-5; Mk 7:31-37

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the LORD, our God, is to us? (Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8).

Psalms — The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord (Psalm 15).

Second Reading — Religion that is pure is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction (James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27).

Gospel — This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts (Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23).

Confirmation

In Ezekiel Chapter 37:1-14, God promises to place a new spirit within His people. He would give them hearts of flesh instead of stony hearts. "I will put my spirit in you that you may live—I have promised, and I will do it, says the Lord." God offers us a life full of enthusiasm a word from the Greek meaning in God. When we receive the sacraments we accept God's gift of Himself. In Romans 8:26 "the Spirit too comes to help us". The Spirit dwelling within us, gives our efforts, our joys and sufferings the same nobility we see in the life and struggles of Christ.

Confirmation is a special day of God's grace for the Confirmandi, the families and the community. Bishop Madera will confirm our young people on Thursday, September 7th at 7:00pm. Please join our prayers with those of our young people on Thursday evening and may the Holy Spirit bless and renew us.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Congratulations to our Candidates

Catholic Ladies Relief Society

There will be a meeting held in the Fireplace Room on September 7th at 11:30am, starting with a sack lunch and continuing at 1:00p.m. for the meeting. We hope that all members will be able to come and start our new year. All Catholic Ladies are welcome to join us, don't forget to bring your knitting and lunch for a fun social hour, it has been a long summer so we need to catch up to see how everyone is doing.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS: RE orientation will be held next weekend, September 10th, 9:45 to 10:45am in the school quad. The children will have the opportunity to visit their classrooms and teachers. RE classes will begin on Sunday, September 17th from 9:45 to 10:45am. We are still in need of RE teachers. If your interested, please contact Carrie Ivins at 823-7122.
