HOLY, HOLY, HOLY!

"Holy, holy, holy!" Ancient languages, like the Hebrew used in the scriptures, did not always have a way to express superlatives in one word. Isaiah could not say God was "holiest," so he used the threefold repetition of the same word. This bit of scriptural minutiae about these "three little words" that we sing at every Mass serves as a reminder that answering God's call has to be grounded in awareness of God's holiness. In Isaiah and in the Gospel passage today, we hear accounts of the revelation of God's power and might: the seraphim in the temple and the miraculous catch of fish. These are not wondrous revelations for their own sakes. They lead to a response in mission, Isaiah's "Here I am, send me!" and the disciples' leaving everything to follow Jesus. And so must our own "Holy, Holy, Holy!" lead us to Christ in the Eucharist every Sunday, and to a life following him day by day.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

(February 17-18, 2007)

25% Comes Back To Our Parish

You may have already received information in the mail about the importance of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Bishop Weigand asks us to please give generously. People in our local communities: Older people, foster teens, children, working families, immigrants, pregnant women, homeless and the mentally ill find relief and a chance for a better future through programs supported by the Annual Catholic Appeal. Your gift also provides funds to our parish for our own ministries to disadvantaged people. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that the Eucharist commits us to the poor". The Annual Catholic Appeal is a wonderful way to help others. Please consider offering a 9-month pledge this year, if you are able. Pledge envelopes are available here at the parish if you did not receive one by mail. Envelopes can be dropped in the Sunday collection or mailed to the Appeal.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalms — In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).

Second Reading — God's grace to me has not been ineffective (1 Corinthians 15:1-11).

Gospel — The crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God (Luke 5:1-11).

Thank you for your Support & generosity

A BIG THANK YOU

Thank you to the Vice family and the school children for remembering us on Clergy Appreciation Day last week during Catholic Schools week.

Your generosity and thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

This past week we celebrated Catholic Schools Week. We are blessed here in Auburn to have a Catholic School that teaches the truths of our faith. Parents are the primary teachers of their children and the home is the first classroom. Here at our parish school we support parents in their vocation as teachers of their children. We have a Catholic grade school with a tremendous history in Catholic education and we have an equally good religious education program to help parents teach what Christ taught us. All of our parishioners help with both programs. We have great schools in Auburn, yet as a parish we are proud of our parish supported school and the good it continues to do for our neighborhood and beyond. We have sent forth over twenty five hundred graduates who continue to bring with them the love and compassion of Christ for His people.

There is a great welcoming spirit on our school campus. Our school children and staff take great pride in their school. Parents, grandparents, family, friends and fellow parishioners make it possible for our children to have a Catholic education. It has been the prayer of every priest and principal that no student would ever be turned away because of a lack of finance. We are working to make this a reality.

From the pastors viewpoint the school is part of the Mission of the Church and provides most of it's leadership. To see so many children happy and full of Christ's spirit, to see them receiving the sacraments, to see parents joining the Catholic faith and also returning to the Church, to see the unselfish efforts of parents, students, teachers and parishioners for our school, makes me feel I'm pastor in a very special place.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

School Excuses, Excuses, Excuses

(Actual excuse notes from parents
(Including original spelling)

- 1) My son is under a doctor's care and should not take P.E. today. Please execute him.
- 2) Please excuse Lisa for being absent. She was sick and I had her shot.
- 3) Dear School: Please excuse John being absent on Jan. 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and also 33.
- 4) I kept Billie home because she had to go Christmas shopping because I don't know what size she wear.
- 5) Please excuse Jennifer for missing school yesterday. We forgot to get the Sunday paper off the porch, and when we found it Monday, we thought it was Sunday.

JACKSON SHOOS, SPEAKER

We will be having a guest speaker, Jackson Shoos, from the Worship and Diocesan Liturgical Commission Department on Saturday, February 17, 2007 at St. Teresa of Avila.

We will begin the day with Mass at 8:30am followed by coffee and donuts.

Mr. Shoos will educate us on the trends and changes from Rome and our diocese. He will have a message for each individual ministry and an open forum for questions to end the day.

We encourage all ministers and parishioners to attend, especially those who are Eucharistic Ministers,

YOUTH GROUP—KICK OFF
Sunday, February 25, 2007

St. Teresa of Avila youth ministry would like to invite everyone to our kick-off dinner following the youth Mass in the parish hall on Sunday, February 25, 2007. Do you like spaghetti? Do you like live music? Then you will like this. So come hungry and ready for a good time.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING AN ALTAR SERVER?

Our ministry is looking for the youth of our parish to serve their community as Altar Servers. Parents are urged to consider this service by discussing this with their children. If your child is interested in serving and is at least a third grader, please contact Vince Anaclerio or Elisa Regacho by e-mail at vince_anaclerio@yahoo.com or (916) 663-2514 before Friday, February 9, 2007.

HEAR YE ! HEAR YE !

Today is Welcoming Sunday. Our Church choirs are hosting the gatherings after the 8:30 and 11:00am Masses. If you have not registered, we invite you to complete the registration below and return it to the parish office or in the collection baskets.

Confidential "Census" Form

Dear Parishioner,

Thank you for taking the time to complete and return this parish census form. With the names of your family members, their ages, etc., we will have a more complete picture of who belongs to our parish community. Help us to be the blessing we seek to be for one another.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Fr. Michael Carroll
Pastor
