WE ARE TO BE TRANSFORMED

Today's showing forth of God's glory is filled with a light that astonishes and reveals. Jesus transfigured on Mount Tabor energizes even the sleepy apostles, who see but cannot get hold of it. They can be forgiven for not apprehending the full meaning of this extraordinary vision of a transfigured Jesus with Elijah and Moses. The whole of the Law and prophets is summed up here on this mountain.

The transfiguration on Mount Tabor is handed over to us this Sunday. As Paul reminds us, it is we who are to be transformed. The light and life of the Resurrection are set forth here so we do not lose heart and fall entirely asleep. This Sunday looks to Easter. It looks to transformation. It asks us to lift up our heads and acknowledge the risen Lord as our light and our salvation.

BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN

During the past month or so, as a Catholic community we gave seven of our parishioners back to God: Stanley Spencer, Thomas Schuck, Mary Anna Conners, Herbert "Tommy" Thomas, Rosemary Mullen, Burt Jones and Marjorie Clune. We have celebrated their lives, thanked God for their presence amongst us, and now on behalf of our parish, I would like to thank their families and friends for the way they accompanied their loved ones through the Agony in the Garden, and on to the Cross at Calvary. Christ promised that he would be with us always. He is present in the Sacraments, and is especially present to his faithful who make Him a welcome guest in their lives. This welcoming Presence gave our parishioners a quiet confidence in facing their illness and in facing their maker. They ministered to all of us about God's love, and they showed gratitude to those who comforted them.

Gratitude, according to Cicero, is not only the greatest of virtues, but the parent of all. Thomas Merton in "No man is an Island" said, "If we are not grateful to God, we cannot taste the joy of finding Him in His creation. To be ungrateful is to admit that we do not know Him Unless we are grateful for our own existence, we do not know who we are.....Gratitude shows reverence to God in the way it makes use of His gifts." One of our gospel acclamations says, "Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." (2 Thess 5:14)

At this time I would like to thank those who minister to our families in their time of sorrow: to the Angel Food Ministry especially Peggy, Jane, Mike and Anna who help them provide food and hospitality after the funeral services, to Annette, Jean, Carolyn and the Music Ministry, to those who help with the liturgy, especially our altar servers, to Jo Anne, Barbara and Stacey who go the extra mile for grieving families.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles: Gallagher opened the morning newspaper and was dumbfounded to read in the obituary column that he had died. He quickly phoned his best friend Finney. "Did you see the paper?" asked Gallagher. "They say I died!!!!" "Yes, I saw it!" replied Finney. "Where are ye callin' from?"

A mother was having great difficulty getting her son out of bed for Mass on Sunday morning. Finally, in desperation she came to his bedside and pleaded: "Son, there's two very good reasons why you have to get up for Mass. Number one, you're fifty years of age and, number two, you're the priest!"

Welcome Sunday

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Lenten Food Drive: The Confirmation students are available outside the hall to collect your food donations after all Masses this weekend. All food and monetary donations will be provided to the Auburn Interfaith Food Closet.

Toiletries: This weekend we will also be collecting shampoos, soaps, etc. There will be a box at each of the side entrances of the Church to drop these off.

The "Alleluia" (or Umph) Box: The RE program burned and blessed palms in preparation for Lent. At the end of our celebration we sang the "Alleluia" song and captured all of our alleluias in this wooden box. The box symbolically reminds us not to use this joyful word during Lent, hence the "umph box". Lent is a time to think about how much God's law of love means to us, to give thanks and to pray in hopes of becoming closer to Jesus. The "umph box" sits next to the ambo to help remind the children of what season we are in and to pray. The box will remain shut until Easter when we rejoice in the resurrection of Jesus.
