THE GIFT OF PEACE

We are offered another vision in today's second reading, a vision of the New Jerusalem, "coming down out of heaven from God" (Revelation 21:10). Read between the lines describing the radiant city, and we find that the greatest beauty revealed is the beauty of perfect symmetry and order, a city founded on the faith of the twelve tribes of Israel and the twelve Apostles, lit only by the glory of God.

The first reading and the Gospel are linked to this idealized description of the New Jerusalem. In both we read of distress and disturbance countered by the gift of peace. "[My peace I give to you," Jesus assures his disciples at the Last Supper (John 14:27). In keeping with that gift, the apostles and elders, in the reading from Acts, decide not to disturb the peace of new Gentile believers. The undue burden of circumcision will not be imposed on them.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

*Christ said to his followers at the Last Supper "I leave you an example to follow."
Lately I came across the following passage and today I dedicate it to all our mothers who are our master teachers in building God's kingdom.*

When You Thought I Wasn't Looking

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I wanted to paint another one.
When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you feed a stray cat,
and I thought it was good to be kind to animals.
When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make my favorite cake just for me,
and I knew that the little things are special things.
When you thought I wasn't looking, I heard you say a prayer, and I believed there is a God I could always talk to.
When you thought I wasn't looking, I felt you kiss me good night,
and I felt loved.
When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw tears come from your eyes, and I learned that sometimes things hurt, and it's all right to cry.
When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw that you cared,
and I wanted to be everything that I could be.
When you thought I wasn't looking, I looked...and wanted to say thanks for all the things
I saw, when you thought I wasn't looking.

IF (Michael Quoist)

If each note of music were to say:
One note does not make a symphony,
There would be no symphony.

If each word were to say:
One word does not make a book,
There would be no book.

If each drop of water were to say:
One drop does not make an ocean,
There would be no ocean.

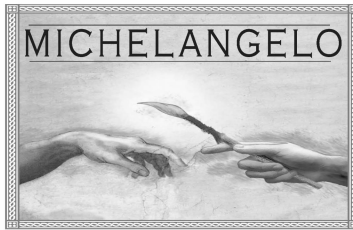

If each seed were to say:
One grain does not make a field of corn
There would be no harvest.

If each of us were to say:
One act of love cannot save mankind
There would never be peace on earth.

If each Mother were to say:
One child does not make the human race
then there would be no family of God.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

WITH HEARTFELT THANKS

During the past week, we have all experienced deep and sincere sorrow after losing my beloved wife, Carrie. She will always be part of who we are, of how we see the world and of how we live and love. So much has changed but her love for our parish and her Christian values will remain as her legacy.

Words cannot express the deep gratitude I have for all the outpouring love you have shown. I am continually uplifted by your prayers and affections. Those who we love will always be a part of us.

Your servants in Christ,
Tony Ivins & Family

A Special Thank You to the ladies of the Catholic Ladies Relief Society for last weekend's Welcome Sunday.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP NEWS

Last week the team challenge went well, even though there was some controversy in the jump rope event. We will be having a scavenger hunt on May 20th and you won't want to miss it. There are only 2 more meetings on our spring schedule. Make sure to check out the youth group before we go on summer break.

The youth group is looking for more adults who are interested in volunteering a few hours of their time, especially for the junior high group. No experience is necessary, you only have to want to help create an active and vibrant youth ministry in our parish.

Volunteer Help Needed for Auburn Interfaith Food Closet

The Food Closet is seeking a person with knowledge of Quick Books (or with computer expertise & willing to learn program) to record income and expenses and produce reports. Does not involve paying bills or making deposits. Requires approximately 4—5 hours a month and approximately 20 hours at the end of the year. Training will be provided. If you are interested, please contact Craig George at 887-8382 or Sandy Bassett at 878-9324.

THANK YOU

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to Fr. Mike, Knights of Columbus and the Music Department for the reverent funeral Mass for John Zawalnicki. Also, to the friends who have remembered him in the Perpetual Mass enrollment.
