THE FULLNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Church wakes up to an amazing message this morning. Look around and see who has been called. Listen to the voices of those who proclaim Jesus is Lord. You'll find no race of people left out; you'll find no language on earth unfit to proclaim the glory of God. We call Pentecost Sunday the "birthday of the church." In many ways, the church is still being born. Only when we all know the peace Jesus offered in today's Gospel will we really know the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

St. Paul assures us in today's second reading that "all of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit." When we look around us in the church we should see everyone. But we don't. Not yet. What is holding us back from fully embracing the one Body of Christ? When will we see our differences as manifestations of the same Holy Spirit?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).
Psalms — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).
Second Reading — In one Spirit we are baptized into one body and given to drink of one Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Romans 8:8-17.
Gospel — Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23) or John 14:15-16, 23b-26.

GRADUATION

As the eighth grade graduate from our parish school and as others graduate from high school and college, please do not throw out all the old ways. Do not change so much that we will not recognize you. Tip O'Neill, leader of Congress, used to tell the story of Honest Jake. Honest Jake helped generation after generation of immigrants who came to Boston. From his store he always extended credit to an honest face. For his birthday one year all his old customers gave 'Honest Jake' a large sum of money. Jake bought himself new clothes, a face lift and a hairpiece, then he decided to go on a cruise. He met a beautiful woman, he asked her for a date and she accepted. As he was standing on the deck outside her room he was struck by a large wave and was drowned. When he got to heaven he said to God "after all those years of hard work and helping people, why me Lord?" God said to him, "is that you, Honest Jake? I'm sorry, I did not recognize you."

Change will always be a constant in our lives but good family traits and qualities are blessings we pass from one generation to another. Here at our catholic school we try to live and embody the gospel values of Christ. Please, as you graduate, and maybe one day move from your parish community-bring the love of Christ and His Church with you. At Mass you will always be in our prayers. Please allow Christ to be your companion and guide through life.

*Where can I go from your spirit?
From your presence where can I flee?
If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
if I sink to the nether world,
you are present there.*

*If I take the wings of the dawn,
if I settle at the farthest limits of the sea,
even there your hand shall guide me,
and your right hand hold me fast.*

Psalm 139

God Bless each and every one of you as you begin your high school years.

We would like to thank the parishioners that have increased their weekly giving after our previous appeal. As you can see from the financial statement below, we are still operating in a deficit. Even though our collections have increased, we have had large expenditures along with higher operating costs this year. Efforts are underway to try and reduce these expenses where possible without reducing our programs or staffing. As previously requested, our goal was to average our weekly contributions at $12,000.00. The yearly average weekly is $9,968.00 for the first 40 weeks. This month (May) is lower and with the summer holidays approaching we know our projection will not be met.

To continue to grow our parish community, we ask everyone to please help balance our budget and volunteer your time and talents.

Sincerely In Christ,
 St. Teresa of Avila Finance Committee

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP NEWS

Now that we have found our way through the scavenger hunt last week, there is only one thing left to do....BBQ. That's right, the youth group will be ending the year with a family BBQ on Sunday, June 10, 2007 following the youth Mass. We will meet down on the school field for food, softball, food, volleyball, and more food. The more the better, so bring a friend.

The parish is still looking for a few adults who are interested in helping to get the Junior High Youth Group off the ground. The High School group is growing because of the parent volunteers who are involved. We can do the same for the Junior High youth, but we need your help. Contact the parish office at 889-2254 if you are interested.

AUBURN INTERFAITH FOOD CLOSET NEWS

On Saturday, June 16 the Food Closet will be conducting its semi annual Stuff-A-Bus Food Drive at the BelAir grocery store. St. Teresa's parishioners are needed to work a 2 hour period from 12:30PM to 2:30PM greeting shoppers and asking them for food contributions for the Food Closet to help them feed the hungry. If you are interested in helping, call Trish Jensen (885-6658) or Ellie Fiertl (878-8878).

The number of people who come for food at the Food Closet has grown significantly since the first of the year. Thank you for your continued support of the Food Closet. Your contributions of food, money and volunteer time make it possible to serve those to come seeking our help.

ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC SCHOOL ADVISORY COMMISSION (CSAC)

The Catholic School Advisory Commission (CSAC) for our parish school has at-large vacancies to fill as several current members complete their terms of service to our school children. The CSAC provides advice and guidance to the school administration, formulates school policies, reviews school finances, promotes the school through marketing efforts, regularly inspects the school for safety issues, and strategically plans for the future. Terms of service are three years. Candidates must either be members of the parish community at large, or parents of students at St. Joseph Catholic School. If you are interested in volunteering your service to the children of our parish school, please call Fr. Mike Carroll at (530) 889-2254.

WELCOME SUNDAY is next weekend, June 3rd. The Hospitality ministry will be sponsoring this months Welcome Sunday after the 8:30 and 11:00am Masses.

Please stop by in the courtyard and meet other parishioners.

Special Collection This Weekend For the Church In Latin America. A contribution to the Collection for the Church in Latin America is a tangible way to express your solidarity with your brothers and sisters throughout Mexico, Central and South America, and the Caribbean. Donations to the collection, fund pastoral projects that bring people more fully into the life of the Catholic Church. Please be generous. For more information, please see www.usccb.org/latinamerica.

THANK YOU

On behalf of my entire family, I would sincerely like to thank everyone for their generosity, support, and kindness with the passing of my dad, Mike Spinosi. It's during times of grief that we realize who are friends truly are, and that has certainly been the case for us. From the visits to Dad in the hospital to his last days at home, the outpouring of concern and love has been tremendous. Words can't really express our appreciation for the wonderful liturgy (Fr. Mike, Fr. Innocent, Deacons Ed and Mike) the reception (Knights of Columbus, ICF, Catholics Ladies Relief), flowers (Anna Manzinali). All the cards, Mass intentions and spiritual enrollments we've received are a testimony to how much Mike was loved. We feel so blessed to be a part of such a giving faith community. Please know that your kindness has touched us deeply and has helped to hold us up.

~ God Bless to all

Giggles: The garage mechanic said to the automobile owner, "I couldn't repair your brakes—so I made your horn louder."

Women are to blame for men lying—they insist on continually asking questions.

Did you hear about the man who lost his toupee in a cow pasture, and tried on four before he found it?

When it comes to giving, some people stop at NOTHING!!!!
