GOD IS WITH US

The Book of Wisdom tells us that the spirit of God is in all things. What a wonderful thought, and what a wonderful image to keep in front of us as we travel down life's road. For if the path is revealed in the treading, it's good to know that God is with us—and all around us—every step of the way.

But Paul knows that this divine presence is not timid. Instead, God calls out to us, and Paul prays that we, along with the Thessalonians, might be made worthy of that call. And who knows more about God's call than Zacchaeus, the tax collector? Jesus called him out of a tree, for goodness' sake. Or perhaps more correctly, as we reflect upon the end of today's Gospel reading, for heaven's sake.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Lord, you love all things that are, and loathe nothing that you have made (Wisdom 11:22 — 12:2).

Psalms — I will praise you name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — May God bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith (2 Thessalonians 1:11 — 2:2).

Gospel — Today salvation has come to Zacchaeus' house, because Zacchaeus too is a descendant of Abraham (Luke 19:1-10).

4th Week of October 2007:

$10,675.50

(Our weekly goal is $12,000)

PATIENCE & MINISTRIES

Over the past few weeks the Sunday Readings were exhorting us to be patient while we pray. It is imperative that we have goals and dreams but we have to allow ourselves the possibility that God is telling us to slow down and that he wants to talk to us through the lives of others. The “Our Father” prays, “Thy will be done,” not my will be done. We have priorities but we need to give God’s works and interference more than equal time.

It has been difficult putting a time line on our new parish ministries. Please God, everyone who has volunteered will be contacted within two weeks. Meetings are to be held, so keep a lookout for these announcements under “New Parish Ministries.” Thanks for your help and patience.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

*Above all, trust in the slow work of God.
We are, quite naturally, impatient in everything to reach the end without delay.
We should like to skip the intermediate stages.
We are impatient of being on the way to something new;
and yet it is the law of all progress that it is made by passing through some stages of instability—
and that it may take a very long time.*

*And so I think it is with you.
Your ideas mature gradually—
let them grow, let them shape themselves,
without undue haste.
Don't try to force them on,
As though acting on your own,
You will make your own tomorrow.*

*Only God could say what this new spirit
Gradually forming within you will be.
Give our Lord the benefit of believing
That his hand is leading you,
And accept the anxiety of feeling yourself
In suspense and incomplete.*

(From the Writings of Teilhard De Chardin)

Giggles & Old Sayings:

If you want praise—die! If you want blame—marry!

You’ll never plough a field by turning it over in your mind.

Laugh and the world laughs with you: Snore and you sleep alone.

Just imagine, that the attendance at your funeral will depend on the weather that day.

Our future is in our children and how we teach them their Catholic faith. This is something they will remember throughout their adult life. It is very important. We have a wonderful team of teachers, excited to teach them, but we need your help to get them here. We are still enrolling children, so it's not too late. Please don't let time or money stop you from participating. Everyone is welcome. Please call the RE office if you have any questions or concerns at 823-7122.
