Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 28, 2007

The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds;
it does not rest until it reaches its goal,
nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds.

NO COMPARISONS

How many times have we read or heard about someone who's gotten into trouble—maybe even fired from a job—because of a brush with the law? While our "Christian" minds tell us to be sorry and even pray for the person, a little voice inside our heads may also be saying, "I'm glad I would never do anything like that."

And perhaps we wouldn't. But are there some things we do that are still not pleasing in God's eyes? Today's readings caution us not to look so intently at someone else's wrongdoing that we overlook our own weaknesses and shortcomings. When we measure ourselves against the worst people we can think of, we come out looking pretty good. There is a danger, however, in using someone else's behavior as a way of reflecting our own goodness.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint (Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18).

Psalm — The Lord hears the cry of the poor (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — The Lord will rescue me from every threat (2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18).

Gospel — All who exalt themselves will be humbled; all who humble themselves will be exalted (Luke 18:9-14).

TREES

Our moderate climate this fall gets the credit for making our trees so beautiful. Around our parish church the trees are beautifully dressed. They seem to be so, to welcome the Holy Presence of God to our midst. As the magnificence of nature points to God so much more does mankind when at his best, he points to the existence of a loving and caring God.

This week our hearts go out to the people of Southern California. The fires have been devastating, the loss of life, the loss of homes and livelihoods. Yet, in the midst of such devastation there has been an outpouring of kindness and support. Every time I view the burnt houses I also see green trees reaching to the Heavens and calling all of us to re-growth.

I think that I shall never see
 A poem as lovely as a tree.
 A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed
 Against the sweet earth's flowing breast;
 A tree that looks at God all day,
 And lifts her leafy arms to pray-
 Poems are made by fools like me,
 But only God can make a tree.
 (By Joyce Kilmer)

God Bless,
 Fr. Mike

STUFF -A -BUS

Stuff-A-Bus is a food drive to benefit the Auburn Interfaith Food Closet. The drive will be held on Saturday, November 3, 2007 from 8:00am to 5:00pm at Save Mart Grocery Store located on Elm near I-80 and at Raley's Grocery Store located at the Foresthill exit of I-80. Auburn transit has generously provided a bus which will be parked outside of each grocery store. Donors are asked to purchase extra cans of fruit, vegetables, chili, canned meats and other canned food. Boxes of non-perishable food, such as cake mixes, are also welcome, as are cash & check donations for the Auburn Interfaith Food Closet. This campaign is very important because it helps the food closet through the holiday months. Thank you for your participation.

WELCOME SUNDAY

Next Sunday, November 4, 2007 the Knights of Columbus will be hosting our monthly Welcome Sunday.

Please stop by and meet and mingle with other parishioners.

GIGGLES: Ten fellas sitting in a bar in Ireland discussing the potency of whiskey. One said scotch whiskey was stronger than Irish Whiskey. This American said, "No, Irish whiskey is dynamite. Last night, my wife and I drank a bottle of Irish whiskey, got up this morning and went to twelve o'clock Mass." Doolan said, "What's unusual about that? Lots of people drink a bottle of Irish whiskey and go to Mass the next day."

The American said, "I know, but we're Jewish."
