Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time August 3, 2008

All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!

— Isaiah 55:1a

THE LOVE OF CHRIST

Some of the most comforting words in scripture come to us today in these readings. The passage from Romans is particularly comforting when we are worried about our spiritual life and fretting about it. “What will separate us from the love of Christ?” (Romans 8:35) Of course, nothing can! Christ’s love, manifested in his life, death, and resurrection, was wholly for God and us, and he will not permit anything, great or small, to separate us from him. Our longing, our hunger for him is sustained by the Eucharist, and even in the darkest of times, when God seems absent and it is difficult to pray, we know by faith that God is with us. God’s fidelity to us is absolute, especially when we are in darkness and confusion.

WHAT I KNOW

As for me, all I know is that I know nothing.

THIRST

You have put salt in our mouths that we may thirst for you.

—St. Augustine

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As the Latin Mass evolved in the first six centuries, the central prayer, what the Greeks called the anaphora and what we call today the Eucharistic Prayer, became fairly standard almost everywhere in the West. What we now know as Eucharistic Prayer I, or the Roman Canon, took a complex shape, not at all like the fluid and spontaneous prayers of early Rome, but a real architectural construction.

The city of Rome was in a terrible condition by that time, and a series of political upheavals, plagues, and invasions swept through. Not much of Rome's former glory was left standing, except for the pope, who became a symbol of protection and hope for the troubled people. The structures of law and administration were swept away in the chaos, and the pope gradually assumed authority to restore and maintain order. Soon, the public liturgy of Rome became the city's only glory. The Romans wanted "good order" not only in their civic life, but in their liturgy. One prayer, increasingly enriched by music (although when the music tried to overtake the prayer the pope banned musical instruments entirely) was the new rule of the day. That one prayer, the Roman Canon, was solidly in place when the first liturgical book we have, the Leonine Sacramentary of 540, was compiled.

“Tools Matter”

The above is a title of a book by Sr. Margaret Mary Funk, OSB. During these days of retreat we will experience some tools (spiritual practices) like centering prayer, the welcoming prayer practice, the forgiveness spiritual practices, Attention-Intention. Daily conferences will present conceptual background that will support these spiritual practices. There will be daily celebration of the Eucharist and time for spiritual direction. Come and join us for these quiet days of prayer and silence. Facilitator: Rev. William Sheehan, OMI Begins with dinner at 6:15pm on Tuesday evening and ends with lunch on Wednesday. $415 residents.

August 16, 2008
(6 Saturdays, August—January)
“The Hour Is Coming”

Our six session program is designed to explore the major contributions of for major spiritual traditions of the world and the influence they have on our modern lives. We will also explore their relationship to the Christian traditions. Session one will provide us with the necessary tools for such a study. Session six will offer some thoughts for making peace through religious understanding. Facilitator: Fr. Thomas Bonacci, CP, from 9:30am and ends at 2:30pm. $185 ~ all sessions or $35 each session.
