GRADUATION ADDRESS

In this season of graduations, we have an ancient model for a brilliant graduation address. Moses exhorts the people of Israel to take the words of God—the commandments—to heart and make an earnest effort to pass them on to succeeding generations. This message applies to us as well. Superficial knowledge of the Lord’s words will not do. To say over and over “Lord, Lord!” or “Yes, Lord!” while doing nothing is all too common, even today.

And Paul does not contradict Moses when he says that we are justified by faith apart from observance of the law. If we have faith in the Lord, then we love the Lord. Out of that love we will want to know God’s will and act in accord with God’s every word. Jesus’ great love for us brings justification entirely out of proportion to the sins of those who have faith in the Lord and try to keep God’s word.

OUR GRADUATES

The inventor of the pencil offered the following advice to his new product “Your true worth is within, you will be sharpened as you go through life and do not forget to leave your mark”. Our thoughts and prayers are with our graduating students over the next few months and beyond.

Our economy is tough right now, our world uncertain. By the grace of God, the help of others and our own efforts, we did okay. Our students will do likewise and even better.

Christ asked us to use our ingenuity and talents to make a better world. St. Paul admired the athletes of his day as he observed the way they trained for the ancient Olympics. St. Paul said towards the end of his life; “I have run the race, I have kept the faith”. St. Paul felt that like the athlete who trained everyday and who grew in strength and endurance, he also by his daily prayer and Christian deeds grew in his pursuit of the greatest prize of all—full union with God. God has gifted us, life will sharpen us and please God, our students will not alone leave their marks in the world, but in the hearts of those they meet.

Advice to Graduates

- 1). It is not the person who has too little who is poor—but the one who craves more.*
- 2). Laughter is the shortest distance between two people.*
- 3). Make your whole year’s plans in the spring, and your day’s plan early in the morning.*
- 4). A ship is safe in harbor, but that’s not what ships were built for.*
- 5). The more we say, the less people remember.*
- 6). A person travels the world in search of what he wants, and then comes home to find it.*
- 7). Kindness is what the deaf hear, and the blind can see.*
- 8). Lord, help me to do with a smile those things I have to do anyway.*

God Bless,
Fr. Mike
