June 22, 2008
Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sing to the LORD,
 praise the LORD,
 for he has rescued the life of the poor

~Jeremiah 20:13

FEAR NOT

How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today's scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that "reigned from Adam to Moses" (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation one message rings out loud and clear—"Do not be afraid!" The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to fear.

IN GOD WE TRUST

Sometime ago I read that “USA Today” said that life expectancy for weekly Churchgoers is 82. For those who attend more than once a week, it’s 83. Non-Church goers live an average of 75 years. When we place our trust in God, it doesn’t mean that everything will be fine. What it does mean is that God is there beside us. That he is the one who will ultimately make sense of everything. Jesus on the cross felt abandoned . . . . Yet, he trusted God even more, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit”. In darkness He trusted. According to Christ it’s safe to trust Him. “Why are you so frightened? Have you still no faith? (Mk 4:40).

“Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you”. Our God is trustworthy. Through His creation, through His people, He shows, He loves and protects us. Most of all, through His life on earth we are invited to share in His life—union with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit forever. We have Christ’s promise of a hundred fold of parents, brothers and sisters his final promise and a cross. Through our crosses we do not perish but have Eternal Life . . . . . So why worry.

God Bless, Fr. Mike

*God has created me to do Him some definite service
 He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another.*

*I have my mission—I may never know it in this life,
 but I shall be told it in the next.*

*I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.
 He has not created me for naught.*

*I shall do good: I shall do his work. I shall be an angel of peace.
 Therefore I will trust him. Whatever, wherever I am.*

I can never be thrown away

If I am in sickness my sickness may serve him in perplexity, my perplexity may serve him.

He does nothing in vain. He knows what he is about.

He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers.

*He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink,
 hide my future from me
 still he knows what he is about.’*

~Cardinal Newman

Giggles: Walking into the bar, Mike said to Charlie the bartender, “Pour me a stiff one—just had another fight with the little woman”. “Oh yeah?” said Charlie, “And how did this one end?” “When it was over,” Mike replied, “She came to me on her hands and knees.” “Really,” said Charles, “Now that’s a switch! What did she say?” “She said, come out from under the bed, you little chicken.”

The Wednesday-night Church service coincided with the last day of hunting season. Our pastor asked who had bagged a deer. No one raised a hand. Puzzled, the pastor said, “I don’t get it. Last Sunday many of you said you were missing because of hunting season. I had the whole congregation pray for your deer.” One hunter groaned, “Well, it worked. They’re all safe.”
