Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 26, 2008

“You shall love the Lord, your God,
With all your heart,
With all your soul
And with all your mind.”

~Matthew 22.37

BALANCE

Today’s scriptures emphasize the fundamental link between love of God and love of our neighbors, especially those who are most in need. Love of God should compel us to love the people whom God cherishes. Conversely, work for justice and charity for those in need should be rooted in our love of God.

That connection and balance, however, isn’t always easy to maintain in our lives. Even in religious orders we find that some Christians are more oriented toward contemplation and prayer, while others are more active in reaching out to those who are oppressed. Today Jesus reminds us of the necessity for both in the life of faith.

OUR CALLING

On Monday night last, Bishop Jaime Soto confirmed the young men and women of our parish. On his way into the Church to vest the people gave him a hearty welcome. He heard from children and adults alike, "Welcome Father". Few knew he was the Bishop, because he's new to Sacramento. He was genuinely impressed with the welcome people were giving to each other. The ministry of welcome is one of the cornerstones of St. Teresa of Avila.

Every Christian is sent by Christ into the world as a messenger of hope and love. The world means where we live, where we work, where we go to school and where we travel. "The whole Church is missionary and the work of evangelization is the basic duty of the people of God" Decree on Missionary Activity—Vat. II.

Christ said "The harvest is great but the laborers are few". Hence what is needed is:

- More to approve, fewer to disapprove.
- More doers, fewer talkers.
- More to say "It can be done", fewer to say "It cannot".
- More to inspire others with confidence, fewer to throw cold water on everything.
- More to get into the thick of things, fewer to sit on the sidelines finding fault.
- More to point out what is right, fewer to keep harping on what is wrong.
- More to light a candle, fewer to curse the darkness.

The laborers are few; but please God, growing in number are those who are willing to put themselves out to bring Christ's healing, welcome, love and hope to others. According to a friend of mine, there are four kinds of bones and four types of people (A) Wish Bones: wishing someone else would do it. (B) Jaw Bones: all talk and no action. (C) Knuckle Bones: knocking everything (D) Back Bones: get under the load and push!

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles: "My priest knows much more than your minister" said the little Catholic girl to the little non-catholic girl. "Of course he does," came the reply, "that's because you tell him everything in confession!".

*****

Two men were passing the local Protestant church. They stopped to read the notice board outside. At the bottom it said: "Holy Communion: Last Sunday of the Month." This caused one to remark to the other. "There you are, there's cutbacks everywhere!"
