*Easter
Sunday*

This is the day the Lord has made

Easter Sunday
April 12, 2009

I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.

— Psalm 118:17

PROCLAIM THE RISEN CHRIST

On Easter morning everything—the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music—everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today’s scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the Resurrection and sing “Alleluia!”

In the scriptures today we hear from Peter and Paul and John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John’s Gospel account includes Mary of Magdala, who also was privileged to witness the Resurrection and tell others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday can we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive and active in our lives?

Fr. Mike's Easter Message

THE RISEN LIGHT OF CHRIST

One of the meaningful symbols of the Easter Vigil is the service of light. The Paschal Candle is brought through the Church in solemn procession, pushing back the darkness. This Easter Candle represents the Risen Light of Christ, which pushes back the darkness about life's lack of meaning.

This year as a diocese we were blessed with over a thousand people joining the Catholic Church. Twenty three adults and teenagers are joining our St. Teresa of Avila Catholic Community at the vigil service. Once the Paschal Candle reaches the sanctuary area, our new fellow pilgrims will light their candles from the Christ Candle and pass on the light until the candles of all are lit. The symbolism is breathtaking, with each person holding their lit candle - the darkness will disappear in the Church - Christ is blessing us with the light of His Risen Presence.

On entering our Church on Easter morning, you will be struck by the tasteful flowers and ambiance that declares Christ is risen. My faith is always strengthened by the example of our fellow parishioners. This year the attendance at daily Mass during Lent, the stations of the cross, reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the Holy Week ceremonies, the RCIA, the hope of our sick parishioners, the garden workers, the joy of our children, the quiet example of our liturgy ministers and the unselfish giving of all has added to the joy of Easter.

On behalf of all, it is my privilege to welcome our new parishioners who have formally joined us at the table of the Lord at the Easter Vigil: Dave Adams, Aggie Adams, Jodi Barnes, Don Chaddock, Richard Ely, Tom Fossum, Jennifer Gillbank, Hoyt Henry, Aaron Hicks, Audrey Hicks, Paula Koerlien, Shane Libby, Julie Livingston, Hayden May, Stephanie Orlando, Lisa Reuter, Ashley Scott, Stephanie Scott, Parker Swartz, Amy Teitscheid, Stephen Woo, & Phil Wright.

God Bless And Easter Joy To All.

Fr. Mike

I See His Blood Upon The Rose

By Joseph Mary Plunkett

I see His blood upon the rose
And in the stars the glory of his eyes,
His body gleams amid eternal snows,
His tears fall from the skies.

I see His face in every flower;
The thunder and the singing of the birds
Are but His voice - and carved by His power
Rocks are His written words.

All pathways by His feet are worn,
His strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea,
His crown of thorns is twined with every thorn,
His cross is every tree.

Giggles:

DISCRETION

Six retired Irishmen were playing poker in O'Leary's apartment when Paddy Murphy loses $500 on a single hand, clutches his chest, and drops dead at the table. O'Connor looks around and asks, "Well, me boys, someone got's to tell Paddy's wife. Who will it be?"

They draw straws. Gallagher picks the short one. They tell him to be discreet, be gentle. "Discreet??? I'm the most discreet Irishmen you'll ever meet."

Gallagher goes over to Murphy's house and knocks on the door. Mrs. Murphy answers, and asks what he wants. Gallagher declares, "Your husband just lost $500, and is afraid to come home."

"Tell him to drop dead!", says Murphy's wife.

"I'll go tell him." says Gallagher.

Father Pat was having a little liquid refreshment with his dinner at the local restaurant. A parishioner who saw him said, "you know The Lord sees you", "yes, Mary, but he ain't a blabber mouth like others I know."
