The Most Holy Trinity

June 7, 2009

Go . . . and make disciples
baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 28:19

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

GOD'S STANDARDS AND THANKS

The world has a fixation with success and being number one. Thankfully God uses different standards. God always looks within to measure the worth of a person.

It is inside that we always find the real person. In our hearts and souls there is so much love and kindness. In some people it bubbles over and in others they are slow to recognize all that is within each of us. There is a need in all of us to slow down and to allow God to nurture us. We need to be thankful for God's standards.

“When God measures a person, God puts the tape around the heart.”
(author unknown)

No matter our age, we are aware that every day has surprises. Each day brings successes and challenges. No matter how difficult a day may be there will always be a moment to be grateful for. It may not be a headline moment but it will be a moment of divine origin. We need to pause each day and thank God for these moments.

“The worst moment for an atheist is when he/she feels grateful and doesn't know who to thank.”
(Wendy Ward)

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

An old blacksmith realized he was soon going to quit working so hard. He picked out a strong young man to become his apprentice. The old fellow, however, was crabby and exacting.

“Don't ask me a lot of questions,” he told the boy. “Just do whatever I tell you to do.”

One day the old blacksmith took an iron out of the forge and laid it on the anvil. “Get the hammer over there,” he said. “When I nod my head, hit it real good and hard.”

Now the town is looking for a new blacksmith.

One young lady told her mom she was in love with a boy in her class and was going to marry him.

“That's nice,” said her mother, going along with the gag. “Does he have a job?”

“Oh, yes,” replied the girl, “He erases the blackboard in our class.”

Bereavement Support Group

St. Teresa of Avila Parish Bereavement Support Group's mission is to provide ongoing bereavement support to parishioners and others young and old, who have experienced the loss of a loved one or the loss in a life changing situation. It is a peer group which offers comfort, compassion, hope and understanding in a spiritual environment. If you have suffered a loss whether it be recent or some time ago and are still dealing with stages of grief, consider attending one of the scheduled dates listed below or call Barbara at 889-2254 to learn more about the support group.

The group will meet from 10:00am to 11:30am in the conference room in the parish office on the following dates: June 6, 20th, July 11th, 25th, August 8th and 22nd.

OASIS DAY
PRAYER and CONTEMPLATION

Every first Tuesday of the month, Mercy Center Auburn offers an opportunity for persons to gather and contemplate more deeply their Christian experience. These days begin with morning prayer and Scripture reflection and follow with time alone to journal, celebrate Eucharist or attend another way of being with God. Before the close of the day, participants are invited to engage in meaningful reflection and faith sharing. This time of sacred sharing honors the questions and mysteries which puzzle, disturb, and amaze us. For further information please contact Mercy Center Auburn.
