Third Sunday of Lent
March 15, 2009

I, the LORD, am your God . . .
You shall not have other gods besides me.

— Exodus 20:2a, 3

KEEP HOLY THE SABBATH

There's no better way to deepen our Lenten practice than to review the Ten Commandments (not the movie, the book). The first three, having to do with our right relationship to God, get the most ink. The one we busy people probably have the most problem with is keeping holy the Sabbath.

If we take this commandment literally, babies will go un-diapered and dishes will stay on the table, or perhaps meals will not be served. The sick will go unattended and nothing that has anything to do with physical labor will be done. Is mental labor really work? How about changing that dirty diaper (poor baby!)?

We need to depend on God to discern how to observe real Sabbath time in our lives. The point of this commandment is that God has given us a great gift: one whole day per week when we are free to rest, worship God, sing, feast, love, and rejoice. As Psalm 19 proclaims: "The law of the LORD is perfect, / refreshing the soul" (19:8). Our Sabbath rest is a great gift, to be received from God with joy, not with nitpicking.

Catholic Relief Services
2nd Collection

Next week the parishes in the diocese will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. This collection makes possible our participation in the Church's global mission to combat poverty, provide relief and development, assist refugees and immigrants, and advocate for justice and peace in situations of conflict and neglect of basic human rights. Please help by giving to the Collection next Sunday, March 22nd. A portion of this special collection will be allocated for the Catholic Church in Central and Eastern Europe.

TODAY'S READINGS

IRISH ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY

As salmon return to their own rivers to spawn, and as migrating birds always return to the places of their birth, so do the Irish return to the land of their ancestors. Each visitor to Ireland is welcomed like family, because most visitors have their ancestral roots in Ireland.

Barack Obama's Great Grandmother, on his Mother's side, comes from County Offaly. Many past United States President's have Irish connections; Clinton, Nixon, Reagan, Kennedy, Grant, Jackson, Wilson, Cleveland, McKinley and Arthur. Other political names include O'Neill, Daley, Moynihan, Lahey, Carroll, Biden and Smith. Hollywood has had its share of Irish Americans; Disney, Ford, Cagney, Crosby, Tracy, O'Hara and O'Brien.

Notre Dame "The fighting Irish" seem to have captured the spirit of Ireland, "No matter the odds, we have a great change." "The bigger they are, the harder they fall." This was a line John L. Sullivan said when he took on all comers, especially men who were built like trees. Boxing historians said he won over two hundred bouts. Jack Dempsey, the "Manassa Mauler" also added to the Irish American reputation of toughness.

Cornelius McGillicuddy, Walter O'Malley and Art Rooney owned sports franchises. Eugene O'Neill and F. Scott Fitzgerald were mighty with the pen. William F. Buckley and Tim Russert brought political debate into our front rooms. Henry Ford gave us the Model T.. Cyrus McCormick and John P. Holland were inventors. John Barry was the father of the U.S. Navy. George Meany was the leader of the AFL-CIO. John Carroll was the first Catholic Bishop of the United States, and Fr. Flanagan and Fr. Theodore Hesburgh added to the visibility of the Catholic Church in America.

These are but a few, who have made us proud of our ancestry. Most of us on St. Patrick's Day will remember different people, like our grandparents, and the religious sisters who gave us a great education and the belief that with God we do make a difference in this great land which God has gifted us. On St. Patrick's Day let us wear the green, and spend a little to help our Nation

Happy St. Patrick's Day
Fr. Mike

Quiz: Who was Cornellius McGillicuddy better know as?
What did John P. Holland invent?
Who was Al Smith?
(First right answers to Fr. Mike, wins a bottle of Irish Whiskey.)

Giggles: Have you heard about the Irishman with an inferiority complex? He thought other people were as good as he was.

Did you hear about the two Irishmen who got caught stealing a calendar from Macy's? Each got six months.

Irish Toast: "For the rest of this year, may your right hand always be stretched out in friendship and never in want."

OASIS DAY of Prayer and Contemplation is every 1st Tuesday of the month at Mercy Center Auburn from 9:15 am to 2:30pm. It offers persons to gather and contemplate more deeply their Christian experience. Facilitator: Mercy Center Staff. For more information please call 887-2019.

MINISTRIES UPDATE

Interfaith Food Closet: Thank you to everyone who has put food in the oak containers in the back of the Church. This month we hope that parishioners will support the food drive sponsored by the Confirmation class. Canned and grocery items collected will benefit families and individuals who come to the food closet for help. The Food Closet is open Monday through Friday from 10:00am to 2:00pm and on the last Saturday of every month. Anyone who lives from Loomis to Alta can come for a 3 day supply of food every month. In February, the Food Closet helped 753 households of which 42 were homeless.

Spiritual Library: Please stop by and browse through the shelves of our library as new items are added frequently. If you have checked out a book, DVD, etc., and have forgotten to return it, please drop it off at the library when you come to Mass. David & Connie DeRosa along with Rocky & Lisa Giannetta will be managing the Library. Jim & Julie Opsahl have decided to take a break from it. Thank you Jim & Julie for all that you have done. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Connie at 916-652-9562 or Lisa at 320-7488.
