Pentecost Sunday
May 31, 2009

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit.

— 1 Corinthians 12:4

ALL ARE SENT

Fifty days after Easter Sunday we celebrate the fulfillment of all God's promises in the feast of Pentecost, a feast that has sometimes been called the birthday of the church. One last time we are reminded that we Christians have received the Holy Spirit, not for our own benefit, but to enable us to follow our Christian vocation.

The centerpiece of the scriptures for Pentecost is the account in Acts of the Apostles of the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The other readings for this Sunday help us to understand what it means to live out our Christian vocation. Paul's letter shows us the gifts and fruits that the Holy Spirit gives to us. John's Gospel reminds us that Jesus has sent all his disciples to share his forgiveness and peace, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

PENTECOST
(Graduation Homily)

There is happiness in seeing you graduate and yet there is a sense of loss for all of us. We will miss your warm smiles and delightful personalities. At this Pentecost, as like the first Pentecost, we ask God to give you His Spirit. You are now ambassadors for God and our Catholic School.

The ideals of our faith are, respect for God, respect for others and respect for yourself. This is contained in our parish mission to be a welcoming people and a hospitable people blessed with abundant gifts and talents called to share with others.

On your journey you will encounter people whose philosophy is, "To take whatever you can without thinking of others." You and I know what Christ said: "Love others like I loved you." "Do not invite only to your gatherings those who can pay you back." "When I was hungry you gave me to eat, when I was a stranger you welcomed me, when I was sick or in prison you visited me." What you do to others you do to me." It takes courage to be different, it takes God's spirit to live fully.

As our school graduates go forward, and as all graduates move on, they have our prayers, love and support.

"We thank you, God of mysterious ways
That you have a holy design
For all graduates.
We rejoice that each of them are special to you,
That their names are written
In the palm of your hand
And that their place in history
And their purpose for existing
Is known within Your heart,
Since endless ages.

We ask you, Lord our God,
To bless the graduate through life.
Be their ever-near companion,
And spread the road before them
With beauty and adventure.
May the blessings of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit
Be with them throughout life's journey
And keep them in your love and peace.

God Bless, Fr. Mike

OASIS DAY PRAYER and CONTEMPLATION

Every first Tuesday of the month, Mercy Center Auburn offers an opportunity for persons to gather and contemplate more deeply their Christian experience. These days begin with morning prayer and Scripture reflection and follow with time alone to journal, celebrate Eucharist or attend another way of being with God. Before the close of the day, participants are invited to engage in meaningful reflection and faith sharing. This time of sacred sharing honors the questions and mysteries which puzzle, disturb, and amaze us. For further information please contact Mercy Center Auburn.

MINISTRIES UPDATE

Seniors Group: June 4, 2009 we will hike at Cronan Ranch, a newer BLM area about 5 miles beyond Cool on Route 49 on the way to Placerville. We will hike the Hidden Valley Trail from the parking area at Pedro Hill Road to the South Fork American River, explore the rapids there, and return by way of the Ranch Road. It's about 5 miles round trip on easy trails and dirt roads. It is beautiful open rolling grassland with very little shade except at the river. Bring sunscreen, enough to drink and something to snack on at the river. We should be back by 2:00 pm. You don't need heavy hiking boots for this trail, but you should wear substantial shoes. We'll take our time and enjoy the beauty God has waiting for us. Call me after 6-01-09 with any questions. Howard Clunn 268-9233.
