The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

August 15, 2010

Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

— Luke 1:42

THE DESTINY OF ALL MORTAL FLESH

The celebration of today’s feast on a Sunday is unusual on our Roman Catholic calendar. Our observance of the Lord’s Day is held in such high esteem that few other feasts replace it. Occasionally there is a feast—usually of one of the saints—in which the saving power of God in Christ is so uniquely focused that the Roman rite deems it worthy of celebration on the Lord’s Day. Today is such a feast. Yet some are surprised at the brevity of the dogma in its entirety: “We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma: that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory.” The Roman Catholic Church never defined any specifics or particulars about the event itself. It is not in the scriptures. There are no verifiable eyewitness accounts. At its core, the dogma reveals in Mary the destiny of all mortal flesh, and reinforces our creedal belief in resurrection of the body. This feast strengthens our faith, defined last week in Hebrews as the realization of things hoped for. We find, in Mary, that realization of what we all hope for, what Paul today affirms: “In Christ shall all be brought to life” (1 Corinthians 15:22).

FR. MIKE: "During the last few weeks, families have been registering as parishioners. The parish belongs to all of us and by registering we are saying, this is where we worship. We now have 1,195 registered parishioners/families, lets get to 1,200, Truthfully we should be at 1,500.....lets all be ACTIVE Catholics."

OUR LADY OF THE ASSUMPTION

Years ago, Bishop Weigand asked me when did I want to return to the active priesthood? Without hesitation I replied, “The 15th of August.” Tradition plays a large role in my life. The Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady was the day when people from my mom’s part of County Kerry returned home from abroad. At Mass that morning the air of excitement always reached new levels. Families welcomed home sons and daughters, uncles and aunts, and old neighbors, who once had to leave because of hard economic times. These had scattered to England, U.S.A., Australia and Canada.

The Feast of the Assumption tells us that God’s gift to Mary is also given to us. The same grace that shaped Mary’s existence from the beginning has been lavished upon us. God’s spirit given to us in Baptism can and does transform our lives. Like Mary, we become Christ-bearers to the world around us. “Blessed is she who trusted that the Lord’s words would be fulfilled.”

Blessed will we be, if like Mary, we trust in the Lord. On this feast day our thoughts turn to our eternal home to which Mary was assumed, body and soul. She is our role model, along with the faith filled members of our families, and our parish community here at St. Teresa of Avila.

The 15th of August signals for all of us the beginning of a new school and parish year. The preparations become more immediate. I am looking forward to growing as a Catholic Community. I will also be mailing all of you, a special letter, about the health and plans for our parish.

Traditions continue, but they are strengthened each year by new people with new vision, those who have trust in God and a special place for Our Lady in our midst.

Our Lady of the Assumption, pray for us.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles:

At the naval barracks the new recruits were given a whole series of injections before going overseas. Afterwards a new recruit asked for a glass of water. “Are you not feeling well?” asked the medical doctor.

“No, I’m just making sure I’m still watertight.”

On the way home from Mass, a woman said to her husband, “Do you think Mary Brown is tinting her hair?”

“I didn’t see her” said her husband.

“Did you see the short skirt Mrs. Murphy was wearing?” continued his wife.

“Don’t tell me you thought that was suitable for a mother of five?”

“I’m sorry, I didn’t notice her either”, said the husband.

“A lot of good it does you to go to Church”, murmured his wife.

“Sorry,” said the florist. “We do not carry potted geraniums. Would African Violets do instead?”

“No”, said the customer. “It was definitely geraniums my wife told me to water while she was away at her Mother’s.”

THANK YOU

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

On behalf of all of us here at The Salvation Army, we want to thank each of you for your recent help with the props for the "High Seas Expedition" Vacation Bible School. The creativity and art work turned our chapel into a very inviting high seas adventure for the children who participated. You turned our panic into praise!!

Our Sunday celebration was greatly enhanced by the décor as the children shared with their parents, friends, and the congregation, what they had learned during the week. We are so grateful to everyone.

Catholic's vs. Cancer
RELAY FOR LIFE

One day. One night.
One community. By participating in the American Cancer Society Relay for Life, August 21st - 22nd, at the Gold County Fair Grounds, you honor cancer survivors, pay tribute to the lives lost to the disease, and raise money to help fight it - all right in your community.

Much more than a walk around a track. Relay is a time to celebrate those who have battled cancer, remembering those who lost and get inspired to fight back. Those who have shared the same experience find common ground, hope and healing at Relay. By participating, you have the power to continue the American Cancer Society's progress toward a future where cancer doesn't take the lives of our friends and family.

The Knights of Columbus Council 6149 and a Catholic team will take turns (1 hour segments) walking around the field for 24 hours. While people are walking, there will be entertainment, speakers, time to relax and reflect, support, and companionship. During the Luminaria ceremony Saturday night at 8:45pm, each light honors the community's cancer survivors and commemorates those lost to the disease. Walkers will circle the track rimmed with glowing luminaries while the names of survivors and those lost to the disease are read aloud. Luminarias can be purchased for $10.

The Knights will set up an area during the event which will have food, beverages and shade from sun. We need your help! We have lost a lot of brothers and family members to this disease. We want big participation in this event. We are signing up walkers and sponsors (business card supporters - $100, bronze sponsorship - $500). $100 donations or more receive a Relay for Life T-shirt. If you would like to participate, please contact Faber Eaves at 530-305-3242 or send donations to: Knights of Columbus, P.O. Box 4604, Auburn 95604.

Humility is a divine veil that covers our good deeds and hides them from our eyes.
