Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 13, 2010

I live, no longer I, but Christ lives in me.

Galatians 2:20

REPENT

“You are the man.” These words, spoken to King David by the prophet Nathan in the passage just before today’s first reading, were a wake-up call to David that he had done wrong in taking the wife of Uriah and having Uriah killed in battle. The story that woke David up to his own guilt was about a rich man who had many sheep, but took and slaughtered the only sheep of a poor man. David thought the man should be punished, but when Nathan made known to him that this story was about David himself, David woke up to his own sin and repented, and the Lord forgave him.

Today’s psalm of David reinforces for us the necessity of recognizing our own guilt and confessing it before the Lord. Then “[b]lessed is the one whose fault is taken away, / whose sin is covered” (Psalm 32:1). God becomes our shelter, and gives us back our freedom.

TRUE TO OURSELVES

Our faith challenges us to be the person God created us to be. “To thine own self be true, and it must follow, as night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man” (Shakespeare). All are gifted and unique. We need to discover from reflective prayer and experience what brings us peace and makes us feel alive.

“The hour is coming, and is already here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth.” (Jn 4:23) We cannot be someone else. God simply wants us to be ourselves, then our lives and worship are pleasing to Him.

“The Man In The Glass”
(Author Unknown)

*When you get what you want in your struggle for self
And the world makes you king for a day.
Just go to a mirror and look at yourself
And see what that man has to say.*

*For it isn't your father or mother or wife
Whose judgment upon you must pass,
The fellow whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the one staring back from the glass.*

*Some people might think you're a straight-shootin' chum
And call you a wonderful guy.
But the man in the glass says you're only a bum
If you can't look him straight in the eye.*

*He's the fellow to please, never mind all the rest.
For he's with you clear to the end,
And you've passed your most dangerous test
If the guy in the glass is your friend.*

*You may fool the whole world down the pathway of years
And get pats on the back as you pass
But your final reward will be heartache and tears
If you've cheated the man in the glass.*

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles: Young John To His Friend; “My mom said my baby brother was sent from Heaven, they must have wanted some peace and quiet.”

Priest to class: “What should I talk about today?”
Sean: “About five minutes, Father.”

LIFELONG FAITH FORMATION The Pillars

For many years now, we parish workers have been hearing talk about how the church is shifting gears from having mainly a children’s religious education program, to having one that addresses everyone in the parish.

Throughout the US Church, we are planning for life long catechesis based on the US Bishop’s pastoral plan. “Our Hearts Were Burning Within Us.” Under this plan, we break the parish into smaller groups in order to reach out effectively and offer everyone something which addresses their own needs. And we take advantage of the many groups already meeting in the parish, rather than organizing a host of new ones.

There is however, another topic of equal importance: the need to provide adults as well as young adults and children, with a presentation of the faith that is systematic and based in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

In all of the papal documents, and also in “Our Hearts Were Burning Within Us,” the bishops consistently call us to this goal. What they said in “Our Hearts Were Burning” is so important, I’m going to quote here.

“To grow in discipleship throughout life, all believers need and are called to build vibrant parish and diocesan communities of faith and service.

“Such communities cannot exist without a strong, complete, and systematic catechesis for all its members. By “complete and systematic” we mean a catechesis that nurtures a profound, lifelong conversion of the whole person and sets forth a comprehensive, contemporary synthesis of the faith, as presented in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This catechesis will help adults to experience the transforming power of grace and to grasp the integrity and beauty of the truths of faith in their harmonious unity and interconnection—a true symphony of faith.

“Adult faith formation, by which people consciously grow in life of Christ through experience, reflection, prayer, and study, must be “the central task in this catechetical enterprise,” becoming “the axis around which revolves the catechesis of childhood and adolescence as well as that of old age.”

“It is because of faith that we exchange the present for the future.
St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen

“How many people are martyrs For Christ each day, confessing the Lord Jesus with their deeds
St. Ambrose of Milan

“In your sacrament we daily embrace and you receive you into our bodies; make us worthy to experience the resurrection for which we hope.
St. Ephrem of Syria
