Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 31, 2010

The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

— Psalm 145:14

GETTING TO KNOW US

Many of us, if we were asked whether or not the goal of our prayer and spiritual life was to get to know God better, would most likely answer, "Of course." But how many of us would think that another purpose of our prayer and spiritual life was for God to get to know us better? We think of God as the One who views the whole universe as a grain of sand. How can God get to know us better? The author of Wisdom reminds us that the Lord is a "lover of souls" (Wisdom 11:26)—and lovers, if they do nothing else, are always seeking out their beloved, wanting to know them better, knowing yet overlooking their faults, wanting nothing but to love them more and more.

In today's Gospel Jesus embodies this God whose imperishable spirit is in all things. Not only does he allow the extreme sinner Zaccheus to speak with him, but Jesus seeks him out, up in a tree. And then—losing his head with love for his brother in the faith of Abraham—Jesus becomes a part of his life by insisting that Zaccheus take him into his own house, the house he lived in through ill-gotten, sinful gains as a tax collector. Wisdom and Luke both tell us that God is willing to walk right into our frail sinfulness in order to know us better, love us more, and bring us in forgiveness to salvation.

A MESSAGE

FROM FR. MIKE

SAINTS

“If you treat someone as they are, they will remain as they are. If you treat them as they ought to be and could be, they will become what we ought to be and could be”. (Goethe)

Jesus spoke in the Gospels of treating others as we would like them to treat us. Jesus saw the potential in mankind, that is why we were created. Every person has the opportunity to nurture the goodness and the promise of others. We also have the potential to give and develop all that God has given to us. What a shame it would be if we don't see ourselves and others as potential.

The saint, for me, is the person who nurtures the potential of each person they come in contact with, without any exceptions. It takes time, it takes reflection, it takes prayer, it takes good example, to achieve what God wants for all of us.

November is the month of the Holy Souls. It is a time to remember those who have gone before us, those who have a special place in our hearts. All of us know many, many saints who achieved most of their potential and who helped us to become what we ought to be and could be.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

The Bishop asked the Confirmation class “Why did Joseph and Mary carry Jesus to Jerusalem, when he was about your age?”
Johnny Murphy answered “Because they couldn't find a babysitter.”

A coach load of tourists arrived at Runnymede. They gathered around the guide who said: “This is the spot where the knights forced King John to sign “The Magna Carta.”
One tourist said “When did this happen?”
“1215” said the guide.
“Shoot,” said the tourist, “I missed it by half an hour.”

The 2010 Gala

Wild West Gold Rush

November 13, 2010 6:30 p.m.

“A fabulous evening filled with live and silent auctions, raffle, dinner and dance”, please join us for St. Joseph Catholic School’s primary fundraiser for the school year.

Yes, I am interested in assisting St. Joseph Catholic School in reaching its goal to provide an excellent and affordable Catholic education by contributing to the Annual Fundraising Gala in the following manner:

Becoming a Sponsor

Sponsorship levels range from $250 to $5,000 and include tickets to the Gala and advertising for the sponsor the evening of the Gala, in the bulletins of St. Teresa of Avila and St. Joseph Parishes, and throughout the school community. Sponsors also receive a tax deductible receipt for their contribution.

Donating an Auction Item

We are looking for gift certificates, gift cards, tickets to events (sports, musical), travel opportunities, any new items (i.e. jewelry, household items, art work), etc. to include in our silent and live auction. Donors will receive a tax deductible receipt for the value of the items and advertising opportunities for the donor the evening of the Gala, in the bulletins of St. Teresa of Avila and St. Joseph Parishes, and throughout the school community.

Purchasing tickets to the Gala

Tickets are $70.00 per person for what promises to be a memorable evening!

We welcome your questions about sponsorship or donations? Contact Nina Ashford (916-626-9166), Jaime Anderson (530-823-1822. or Linda Wuelfing (530-210-1208).

Please contact me to discuss my possible contribution(s):
