Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 28, 2011

Be transformed by the renewal of your mind,
that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.

— Romans 12:2

THE CROSS OF JESUS

The perception of a cross changed dramatically after Jesus' crucifixion. Before that event, death on a cross was not only horrible, it was degrading. It was a penalty reserved only for the most wretched of criminals. The word "glory" would not have found its way into the same sentence containing the word "cross." But all that changed with Jesus. Over time, believers began to venerate and honor the cross. They painted, sculpted, and carved images of it. Many lost their own lives for their association with it. Today our reverence for and relationship with the cross recalls little of the contempt originally associated with it. As it has been through the ages, it is our perception of the cross that determines how we follow Jesus.

Catechist Ministry Day 2011:
Do This In Memory of Me

The Book of Revelation—Come here Thomas Smith, Mormon missionary turned Protestant minister and now enthusiastic Catholic, explain the connections between the Book of Revelation and the Mass! This workshop, A Marriage Made in Heaven, is just one of over 40 workshops offered at the Diocese of Sacramento's Catechist Ministry Day on Saturday, September 17, at St. Francis High School in Sacramento. Full workshop descriptions and online registration is available at www.CatechistMinistryDay.com.

THE MASTER TEACHER

Jesus was patient in the way He dealt with Peter. He helped him to grow into the man who led the Church and who laid down his life for Christ. When Jesus called Peter He saw the potential in him We all need someone to believe in us. When Peter asked The Lord to leave Him "Lord depart from me, for I am a sinful man"The Lord invited him to come and follow Him. The Lord gave him responsibility. Christ asked him for a commitment as regards The Eucharist, "Will you also go?" When Peter made his declaration of faith, "You are the Christ, The Son of The Living God". . . . Jesus promised him leadership. Jesus also corrected him, "Get thee behind me . . .," Can you not watch one hour with me?" Peter denied Jesus, but he was forgiven and given his leadership role. We all need someone who understands us and who does not give up on us. Peter knew that Jesus believed in him and loved him. This was the rock in Peter's lifeBelief and Love from Christ.

My favorite Pope is John XXIII. Before his election to the papacy, in his days as Patriarch of Venice, he loved and helped his priests. There was one priest about whom he got many complaints. The priest arrived home one evening to find his Bishop, Cardinal Roncalli waiting for him. He knew why the Cardinal was there, but the Cardinal did not launch into an attack . . . Instead the Cardinal knelt at the feet of the priest and said, "Father, would you please hear my confession?" The belief and the Love of Christ was born again in the visit of a special Bishop with his priest.

We are beginning a new school year, a time for all of us...parents, teacher, parishioners, religious and clergy, to teach and love as Jesus did. We pray that Christ The Master Teacher will be our guide.

*If children live with criticism, they learn to condemn.
If they live with hostility, they learn to fight.*

*If they live with ridicule, they learn to be shy.
If they live with shame, they learn to feel guilty.*

*If they live with tolerance, they learn to be patient.
If they live with encouragement, they learn to have confidence.*

*If they live with praise, they learn to appreciate.
If they live with fairness, they learn what justice is.*

*If they live with security, they learn what faith is.
If they live with approval, they learn to like themselves.*

If they live with acceptance and friendship they learn to find love and God in the world.

God Bless, Fr. Mike

Giggles:

Son: "Dad, what is conscience?"

Dad: "Son, you know your uncle and I own a business together. Suppose a customer comes in and buys an item for ten dollars and he gives me a twenty dollar bill and leaves without waiting for his change. If I split the extra ten dollars with your uncle that is conscience."

President Kennedy had a natural wit. On one occasion a little boy asked him how he became a hero? "I couldn't help it", he replied, "the Japanese sank my boat."

Two little girls from St. Mary's were studying from their religion book. "I'm past original sin", boasted the first. "That's nothing", answered the second. "I'm beyond redemption."

Ministry Fair 2011
September 18 – after all Masses

The landowner is out looking for laborers – Will you stand there idle?

Please join us September 18 for our annual ministry fair. Please plan on spending some time after Mass to learn about our many ministry opportunities here at St. Teresa's. Spend some time in prayer, asking how you can more fully experience our community of faith.

Please join us in A Biblical Walk Through The Mass

Offered as a five week study here at St. Teresa of Avila Church, every Wednesday from September 28 through October 26 at either 9:15 – 10:45 am or 7:00 – 8:30 pm. Facilitated by Jean Sawyer & Sister Anita

This adult faith formation program, by Edward Sri, S.T.D., provides a unique tour of the timeless Liturgy. It explores the biblical roots of the words and gestures we experience in Mass and explains their profound significance.

Participants in this study will come to know and understand the Mass like never before. They will see, perhaps for the first time, why they say what they say, and do what they do every week at Mass. The words and gestures will be seen in a new light, leading them to a richer, more fruitful worship experience.

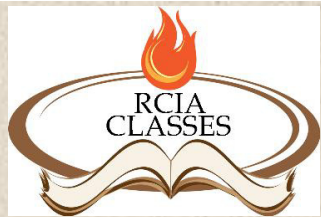

In order to have appropriate materials we will need your pre-registration. (materials will cost participants between $15 and $20) Please fill out this form and turn it in to the office or collection basket. Please contact Jean Sawyer at 530.885.2958 or Sister Anita at 530.889.2254 with any questions.

THE RCIA INQUIRY STAGE
ST. TERESA OF AVILA CATHOLIC CHURCH
September 12, 19, 26 at 7:00pm in the Chapel

Thinking about joining the Catholic Church, and feeling a little lost? Here's some detailed, Christ-centered guidance on faith development during the RCIA inquiry stage.

The RCIA inquiry stage is the starting place for adults who are thinking about entering the Catholic Church. In the inquiry stage, you're just finding out about Jesus, Christianity, and the Catholic Church. Talk to people, walk around in our shoes for a bit and get a feel for the place. As an inquirer, you're not yet sure exactly what you think about the Catholic Church, so you're still keeping it at arm's length. (I know, I've been there!)

"Be still, and know that I am God." ~Psalm 46:10

Your main task here is to develop your faith a little bit. Get to know Christ, prayer, the Catholic Church, and how Christians live. That's the only way you can make an informed decision about entering the Catholic Church. Let me put it more simply: you need to fall in love in Jesus.

At the center: A Person, with a name

At the core of the Catholic faith stands Christ, God who became man. He became man so that we could know God, could feel the power of His presence, and could learn to make Him the center of our lives.

You need to get to know Him, to learn to feel the power of His presence, and to begin to put Him at the center of your life. Again: you need to fall in love with Jesus. Catholics believe that Christ is the answer to all of our questions and problems—particularly the deepest questions of human existence. Your job as an inquirer is to ask those fundamental questions, understand how Catholics believe that Christ is the answer to them, and see if you agree.

There's a beautiful phrase in Scripture we love to use. In the Gospel of Luke, the shepherds tell Mary and Joseph about how they saw angels proclaiming the birth of Christ. And then St. Luke tells us, "Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart" (Lk 2:19).

So, as you ask questions and learn the Catholic answers to them, that's what you need to do—"ponder them in your heart." Please call the parish office, Sr. Anita to let us know if you will join us. 530-889-2254 ext. 13.
