Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 27, 2011

Can a mother forget her infant,
be without tenderness for the child of her womb?
Even should she forget, I will never forget you.

— Isaiah 49:15

DON'T BE ANXIOUS

People have, it seems, a natural penchant for misplaced emphasis on important things. They can easily get caught up with what they're having for dinner or what they will wear.

Often it is a tragedy that helps people to refocus on what is really important. What I shall wear is an irrelevant question when I am facing surgery or chemotherapy. What's for dinner is immaterial to those living through grief or unemployment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us not to worry. He doesn't say, "Don't eat. Don't cook. Don't buy clothes." He says, "Don't worry." Jesus asks us not to relinquish our responsibilities but to let go of our anxiety. Anxiety betrays a lack of trust and Jesus reminds us that "Your heavenly Father knows" all that you need (Matthew 6:32).

DO NOT WORRY

Sometimes life gets us down. We fret and fear about many things when only one thing is necessary, which is to live a life pleasing to God. Christ tells us not to worry about food, about clothes, and about tomorrow.

One of the most wonderful things that can happen to people . . . Is to discover that someone loves and cares about what happens to them. This is what Jesus is telling us in the Scriptures and in the Eucharist. Today Jesus is telling us is to avoid the worry that takes away our peace of mind.

Our lives are a gift from a loving God, a loving Father, who delights and rejoices in all His children. Yes, we have to make plans and to be resourceful, No, we are not to be selfish. Life has deeper meaning when we journey to God’s Kingdom with our God and one another.

MY JOURNEY

(Thomas Merton)

Lord, I have no idea where I’m going,
I do not see the road ahead of me,
I cannot know for certain where it will end.
Nor do I really know myself.
And the fact that I think I am doing your will does not mean that I am actually doing it, but I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you, and I hope that I have this desire.

I know that if I do this
You will lead me by the right road,
though I know nothing about it.
Therefore, I trust you always.
Though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death,
I will not fear, for you are with me,
and you will never leave me face my perils alone.

Giggles: Saturday afternoons in Irish pubs are days in which people bet on football, rugby, horse racing, as a matter of fact on nearly anything. On one such Saturday, two guys were making unusual bets. “I bet you a hundred I can bite my eye,” says one guy. “Okay, you’re on.” With that the first fellow took out his glass eye and bit it. A little later the guy who won the bet said, “I bet you a hundred I can bite my other eye.” Knowing the first guy couldn’t have two glass eyes, the second accepted the challenge. The first guy promptly took out his false teeth and bit his other eye.

There was a young lady named Bright whose speed was far faster than light;
She went out one day,
in a relative way
And returned on the previous night.

St. Teresa of Avila Parish Mission
Lent 2011

“I Have Come That You May Have Life and Life in Abundance”

Presented By

Fr. John Cusick
Director, Young Adult Ministry Office
Archdiocese of Chicago

By using Gospel stories, this three evening parish mission will focus on the invitation and challenge presented to us by Jesus Christ to be fully alive. In a world that sanctifies mediocrity, that thrives on sameness, that practically demands everyone to be and act like everyone else, the call of Christ to the fullness of life – lived by each one of us every day – can be a difficult task.

What does it mean to be fully alive at our work place, in family life, in our schools and social and spiritual communities? What happens when we try and miss the mark? Do we get second chances? Great people are built on great dreams. What are the spiritual practices we can employ to keep God’s dream for us alive? How do we never forget Christ’s call in our lives?

You are invited to spend one hour each evening for three evenings, Monday, March 28th, Tuesday, March 29th and Wednesday, March 30th at 7:15pm, St. Teresa’s Church to focus on Christ’s call and invitation to us. Through preaching, prayer and song we will connect with Christ’s presence among us, seek some insights and inspiration offered us in the Gospels Then we will return to where we live and work and bring Christ’s to others by the very actions of our lives.

Evening 1: Blessed Are You! Do You Believe That?

Evening 2: How Do We Get Free to be Fully Alive?

Evening 3: A Strategy to Keep God’s Dream Alive
