The Epiphany of the Lord
January 2, 2011

They opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

— Matthew 2:11b

LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Epiphany can be understood as an extension of the Nativity of the Lord that we celebrate on December 25. While at Christmas we celebrate Jesus' coming as the long-awaited king and Messiah of the Jewish people, on Epiphany we celebrate the revelation that Jesus is the Savior and Light of all nations—Jews, Gentiles, and all people.

The star shines so brightly that it attracts magi who come from far distant countries to worship Jesus. They are not Jews, yet they are drawn to the Light of the World. The letter to the Ephesians reveals that the Light of the World was for the Gentiles as well as the Jews—Christ gathers all people into the light of his love. The reading from Isaiah also describes a gathering of diverse peoples, but this time it is to the light that emanates from the people of God.

A HAPPY AND BLESSED NEW YEAR

Moving as well I know can be a pain, but that pain is lessened when help is offered. It reminds me of a story about a young single man who was doing well in the computer industry. He decided to move to a better neighborhood, a more upscale apartment, to meet girls. Since he now had money he decided to get a professional mover. When asked by the mover what he wanted taken to his new apartment, he answered, everything. You can imagine his dismay when he found all his garbage, old newspapers and empty bottles at his new place.

New Year. . . is a time in life for leaving garbage behind.

EPIPHANY

Epiphany means “revealing” or “showing” or manifesting.” When the Maji arrived at Bethlehem, God was showing Himself not only to the chosen people, but to the rest of the world as well. God is saying today on the Feast of the Epiphany, “I am there for you, no matter where you come from or whatever language you speak, no one is left out.” Sometimes we focus on the gifts the wise men bought when we should remember the wisemen represent all nations, and Christ welcomed them. When God welcomed them He welcomed each of us.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles:

One winter morning, an employee explained why he had shown up for work 45 minutes late. “It was so slippery out that for every step I took ahead, I slipped back two.”

The boss eyed him suspiciously. “Oh yeah? Then how did you ever get here?”
“I finally gave up,” he said, “and started for home.”

WHY WORRY?

- (a) We probably wouldn't worry about what people think of us..... if we really knew how seldom they do?
- (b) Don't tell me that worry doesn't do any good, the things I worry about don't happen.

Quiz for the young at heart:

- (1) What word is always pronounced incorrectly?. Incorrectly.
- (2) When does success comes before work?. In a dictionary.
