The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 26, 2011

Not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD.

— Deuteronomy 8:3b

FOOD FROM HEAVEN

God sustained the people of Israel for forty years in the desert with manna sent down from heaven, and Moses doesn't want them to forget it. God brought forth water from stone for them to drink, and Moses doesn't want them to forget this, either. And Moses tells them—twice—that the food that God sent was a food that neither they nor their ancestors before them had ever experienced before.

Jesus, too, speaks of food come down from heaven, food that the Jewish people had never experienced before. Recalling the manna in the desert, Jesus doesn't want them to forget it either, explaining that he is the food and drink of eternal life. And Paul reiterates to the Corinthians and to all of us that in the bread and in the cup, we share in the body and blood of Christ.

The Men of St. Teresa Parish

What are the Knights of Columbus? The Knights of Columbus is a worldwide service organization of 1.8 million Catholic men dedicated to helping and serving our world, church, and community. From the moment of its founding in 1882, charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism have been the driving principles. We are men of faith and men of action.

The Auburn Council was founded May 20, 1969. We started with 52 charter members. We are now comprised of 290 men of faith from ages 18 to 89. We believe giving to our parishes, our Catholic school and helping our community is primary. In the last four years, we donated $110,000 to St. Joseph and St. Theresa Parishes, $37,000 to St. Joseph School, and $44,000 to other charitable causes.

Have you been looking for a way to meet other Catholic men and families? Can we help you to live your faith and get closer to our Lord? We meet once per month to conduct business and maintain our fraternity. For more information, ask any Knight or give me a call. Vivat Jesus (Jesus lives)!!

SACRED COVENANT—THE EUCHARIST

Wednesday last, the first reading stated that God had made a covenant (agreement) with Abraham. This covenant said that God would be the God of Israel and that we would be His people. He also promised Abraham that His descendents would be as numerous as the stars in the Heavens.

That morning, Mass was attended by more than thirty young people, all attending our Vacation Bible School. They and their families took the time to go to Mass before bible school. I remember the scriptures that said “They are not far from the Kingdom of God.” Our families are uplifting for us priests.

Hic est enim calix sanguinis mei, novi et aeterni testamenti: Mysterium fidei: Qui pro vobis et pro multis effundetur in remissionem peccatorum. For this is the Chalice of My Blood, of the new and eternal covenant; the mystery of faith; which shall be shed for you and for many unto the forgiveness of sins. All covenants are sanctified by the Eucharist. When we attend Mass, Christ comes to all of us. He empowers us to be faithful to Him and each other.

The New Catechism of the catholic church states in paragraph 1324: The Eucharist is “The source and summit of the Christian life. The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up in the Eucharist and orientated towards it. For in the Blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the church, namely Christ Himself, Our Pasch.”

We cannot be Catholics without Christ, we cannot be Catholics without The Eucharist.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles:

“I don’t like the beat of your heart,” the doctor said, applying the stethoscope again.
“You have some trouble with Angina Pectoris, haven’t you?”
The young man said, “You are right Doctor, but that isn’t her name.”

“You know darling,” said Murphy, breaking his silence after two days.
I’ve been thinking over our argument, and I’ve decided to agree with you.”
Mrs. Murphy said, “That won’t do you any good, I’ve changed my mind.”

Johnny was on vacation at Santa Cruz when he spotted an elderly woman sitting under her umbrella on the sand. He went over to her and asked, “Are you a Catholic?” “Yes”, she replied.
“Do you go to Communion every Sunday?” “Yes”, she replied.
“O.K.” said Johnny, “Will you hold my cell phone while I go swimming?”
