Fourth Sunday of Easter

April 29, 2012

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

— 1 John 3:1

RESPONDING TO THE CALL

Do we truly know the voice of Christ? Do we truly respond to the voice of our shepherd with our own distinctive voice? How often we attempt to imitate those around us, appropriating the response of another member of the flock to Christ. Perhaps we need to balance the image of being sheep of one flock with the image from the second reading, which tells us that we are all children of God. What child has precisely the same interaction with parents as his or her siblings? Instead, they frequently do and say things to distinguish themselves in the eyes of their parents.

Whether we use the image of children or of sheep to understand our relationship with Christ, we believe that we are all known and called by name. With this great gift comes a responsibility: to respond to the call with our own distinctive voice, to take time to discern exactly what our call is, to determine precisely what the will of the Father is for each of us.

FIRST COMMUNION PHOTOGRAPHS

When children are born into a family it is a time of blessing for all. God brings the children to us and asks us to raise them. When parents prepare children for their First Holy Communion, they bring their children to God—to Christ. First Holy Communion Day is one of the earliest memories most of us have. But it needs to be more than just a memory. How can we keep the beauty of this closeness to Christ alive?

Photographs are important to all of us. They also show our value system. When I visit homes, I always want to see family pictures. You see all kinds of family groupings: wedding days, family reunions, baseball and soccer pictures. But now-a-days you see little or no pictures on display of First Holy Communion Day. Not long ago while visiting a grandmother who was dying, the pictures she had on display were of her grandchildren's First Holy Communion days, she felt blessed by her children and grandchildren. To my parents, these First Communion pictures had a special place in our home. Every visitor saw a celebration of our faith and they became a source of blessing to us grown children and to all my nieces and nephews.

Let First Communion day be a deepening of our love of Christ. May we the parish family of St. Teresa of Avila share the joy of our children. If you can find your own First Communion picture or that of your children, share it. In the weeks ahead, get that film developed and display the First Communion pictures. Send them to grandparents, and godparents, and relationships will deepen. First Communion Day is a blessing for our families and with the help of photographs it can be a blessing that lasts forever.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles: The Bishop was visiting a Catholic school and he was carrying his Bishops Crook. (Staff) The Bishop informed the class about his role as shepherd. He then asked what a shepherd's crook was? A young student answered, "It's the guy who steals the sheep".

English is a funny language. A fat chance and a slim chance are the same thing.

John had not been to church in many years, but he showed up one Christmas. The priest said, "John, it's great to see you, I want to see you more regularly, I want you to join the Lord's army."

"Father, I'm already in the Lord's army".
 "Then how come I don't see you every Sunday", says the priest.
 "Father, I'm in the Lord's secret service, we can't be seen."

Definition: A tax collector. "A person who has what it takes.....to take what you have".

LAS FOTOS DE LA PRIMERA COMUNIÓN

Cuando nacen los niños en una familia, es un tiempo de bendición para todos. Dios nos trae a los niños y pide que los criemos. Cuando los padres preparan a los niños para la Primera Santa Comunión, Le traen a sus niños a Dios – a Cristo. El Día de la Primera Santa Comunión es una de las memorias tempranas que la mayoría de nosotros tenemos. Pero ese evento necesita ser más que sólo una memoria. ¿Cómo podemos mantener viva la belleza de esta cercanía a Cristo?

A todos nosotros, las fotos son importantes. También muestran nuestro sistema de valor. Cuando visito los hogares, siempre quiero mirar las fotos de familia. Se ven todos tipos de agrupaciones familiares; días de bodas, reuniones familiares, fotos de juegos de béisbol y de fútbol. Pero hoy en día se ven pocas o ningunas fotos exhibidas del Día de la Primera Santa Comunión. Hace poco que mientras yo visitaba a una abuela quien estaba muriéndose, las fotos que se presentaban eran de los Días de la Primera Comunión de los nietos. Ella se sentía bendita por sus hijos y nietos. Para mis padres, estas fotos de la Primera Comunión tomaban un puesto especial en la casa. Todos los visitantes veían una celebración de nuestra fe y las fotos se hacían una fuente de bendición para nosotros hijos adultos y para todos mis sobrinos.

¡Qué el Día de la Primera Comunión sea una profundización de nuestro amor de Cristo. ¡Qué nosotros la familia de la parroquia de Santa Teresa de Ávila compartamos la alegría de nuestros hijos. Si se puede encontrar la foto de su propia Primera Comunión o las de sus hijos, ¡compártanlas! Durante las semanas siguientes, ¡revelan las fotos de la Primera Comunión y exhibanlas! ¡Mándenlas a los abuelos y a los padrinos! y se profundizarán las relaciones. El Día de la Primera Comunión es una bendición para nuestras familias y con la ayuda de las fotos, puede hacerse una bendición que dure para siempre.

¡Qué Dios nos bendiga!

Padre Miguel

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There are few openings for "Shepherds" in the classified ads today, but few occupations are as dear to the Christian heart. Most of us tenderly place shepherds by our Christmas cribs, name the Twenty-third Psalm as our favorite, and recognize "Good Shepherd" as a title of Jesus. Bishops carry a staff, called a crozier, modeled after the shepherd's walking staff. Long before Christian artists painted Jesus on the cross, they traced on the walls of their worship places images of a strong young shepherd, shouldering a lost sheep and bringing it to safety. Springtime is the season of lambing, a time when the shepherd not only learns the faces of the new arrivals, but also when the newborn sheep become attuned to the voice of the shepherd. This is exactly what we do as a community in Easter as we shelter and guide the newly received Christians, and also put our Lenten muscles to good use: listening more attentively to God's Word, and responding with springtime vigor to God's call.
