Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 28, 2012

The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad indeed.

— Psalm 126:3

RECOGNIZING JESUS

The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens. Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

St. Vincent de Paul Society will be available to meet with individuals and families in need, on most Thursday evenings at 7:30pm in the parish hall.

THE HOLY SOULS

November is the month of the Holy Souls. A time to prayerfully remember our own loved ones who have gone ahead of us to God's Kingdom. Not all in my Hall of Remembrance would be regarded as saints. Yet, all of them loved God and they had more than their fair share of good points. I have always taken comfort out of our belief in Purgatory. Purgatory for the Church is not so much a place of punishment, but a place of hope. Pope Benedict XVI wrote, "Purgatory plays an important part in hope.....we would hope, there will be few people whose lives have become an irredeemable and total loss.....Purgatory basically means that God can put the pieces back together again."

Part of remembrance is also making alive the qualities and good works of our deceased loved ones who lived amongst us. So, this November as our beloved dead flash upon the inward eye, let us continue the good ways of life we have inherited from them.

God Bless, Fr. Mike

The Way To Succeed

"Come you who are blessed by my Father.

Come and possess the Kingdom..I was hungry and you fed me..thirsty and you gave me a drink;

I was a stranger and you received me in your homes..naked and you clothed me;

I was sick and you took care of me..in prison and you visited me." (Jesus Christ)

"To laugh often and much

To win the respect of intelligent people

And the affection of children..

To appreciate beauty;

To find the best in others;

To leave the world a bit better"

(Ralph Waldo Emerson)

"Discipline is the soul of an army

It makes small numbers formidable

Procures success to the weak,

And esteem to all"

(George Washington)

Giggles: A preacher woke up one morning after having the following dream ...Three presidential candidates were brought before God.

The first was Bill Clinton who related to the Lord all he had attempted to do for his country and the world...God answered, "Welcome, take the seat on my right."

The second presidential candidate was George W. Bush who related to the Lord all he had attempted to do for his country and the world...God answered, "Welcome, take the seat on my left."

The third presidential candidate was Ross Perot who said to God, "I believe you are sitting in my seat."
