Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 16, 2012

The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced.

— Isaiah 50:7

IT'S ALL ABOUT CONTROL

From toddlerhood to old age, we grow in mastery of our own lives, our bodies, and our destiny. This mastery is hard won, and we don't let go of autonomy easily. Much of this self-mastery involves the avoidance of pain or discomfort, so when we hear things like "take up your cross" and "lose your life," we tend to resist the message.

James says that faith without works is dead. Ouch! That is really a direct message! One way to look at this, as well as the part about losing our life to find it, is that faith is a process of more and more openness to God's direction of our lives. It is very hard for us to give up control, but perhaps what we are being asked to do is not to become passive and babyish, but to allow God to direct where our self-mastery will lead and what it will accomplish. We are asked to relinquish the need to control the results of our efforts; to risk, as Jesus did, the loss of everything we are working to achieve. We are asked to let God take the lead and to control the results, even though we may never see those results.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. MIKE

ON MY KNEES

Abraham Lincoln said "Sometimes I find myself on my knees, because there is nowhere else to go." When 9/11 happened, as a priest I left the parish church open day and night for a week. The lights of the church and a sign on the lawn said "Open for Prayer". Most people who were going by, dropped in and said a quiet prayer.

Some things become second nature when they become part of our daily routine. Students when they study.... develop good habits. Athletes when they practice....acquire skills. When people put in a good days work...success usually follows. When families work, pray and have fun together...everyone knows they are loved and valued. When we get away from the good and true ways of living....we are less, and the world is less.

As people get married, they promise before God to Love, Honor, Respect and Cherish each other for life. They also promise to accept children lovingly from God, and bring them up according to the ways of Christ. When men are ordained, or when people enter the Religious life they promise to be ready and willing to make sacrifices for Christ and His Church.

What we have received, we have the honor and duty to pass on to the next generation. Parents and all adults have to lead by example and to make sacrifices. As a priest I want to pass on the love of the Mass to all, but, I also need to provide Mass opportunities for the faithful over the weekend. It's not about an easy road for me.....It's about service. As parents and adults I know you want to pass on to all children a roadmap that will enable them to be fully alive. This road map needs to be dotted with places and opportunities for prayer and attending Mass.

The Holy Spirit leads us to our knees, where we join Christ in praying to God our Father. We can do so much more with the Grace of God, second nature and with our fellow pilgrims.

Giggles: A woman and her husband interrupted the start of their vacation to go to the dentist. "I want a tooth pulled and I don't want Novocain because I am in a big hurry to catch a plane. Extract the tooth and we are on our way". The Dentist said "You are a courageous woman, which tooth is it?" The woman turn to her husband and said, "Show him your tooth, dear".

A man was telling his barber he was planning to visit Rome, Italy, the birthplace of his parents. "I want the full Italian experience. I'll fly Italian, stay in Mom and Pop Italian guest houses, eat in small Italian cafes and go see the Pope." His barber said, "I've done all what you are planning to do ...but, I would fly international airlines and I would stay and eat international, and I would not go see the Pope because of the crowds." Two months later the customer returns and says the trip was terrific, everything Italian was beautiful and I had a private audience with the Pope. The barber said, "What did the Pope say?" The customer replied, "he said, where did you that awful haircut?"

A man saw a beautiful bird in a pet shop that not only strange, but also spoke six languages. He bought the bird and paid the have it delivered to his home. When he got home his wife was cooking the bird in the oven. He said, "What? You have the bird in the oven. That bird speaks six languages!" His wife said, "Well, why didn't he say something?"

Car Wash Fundraiser for the Gathering Inn Sunday, September 16th from 7:45 am to Noon: St. Teresa's High School Youth Group is holding a car wash to raise money for the Gathering Inn, a program set up to feed and house the homeless in our area. Drop your car off down by the field before mass and we'll have it squeaky clean for you after mass.

GABRIEL PROJECT SIGN-UP SUNDAY: Today is Gabriel Project Sign-Up Sunday. As you've been reading in the bulletin, the Gabriel Project is an ecumenical movement of churches committed to helping women and families in crisis pregnancies. The parish community helps meet the mom's emotional, spiritual and material needs.

Today, I'm asking you to fill out the volunteer sheets after Mass. There will be an information and training session for all volunteers. This session will give you a chance to have any questions answered and to learn more about The Gabriel Project in detail.

Thank you for showing your commitment to women in need!
