Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 30, 2012

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul;
the decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.
— Psalm 19:8

PROCLAIM THE WONDER OF GOD

The gift of the Spirit is given freely, not according to human expectations, but according to the generosity of God. Joshua wants Moses to stop Eldad and Medad from prophesying in the camp, when they were not with the others as the spirit was bestowed on them. Moses, so close to God’s mind in the matter, wishes everyone could possess the spirit of God and proclaim it to the nations.

Psalm 19 celebrates the perfection of God’s law, and how it brings joy and delight. It is better than the finest gold or the sweetest honey. Moreover, God gives the wisdom of the prophets to everyone, especially the simple and lowly ones, even to children. It is the “little ones” who proclaim the wonder of God to all.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK
September 30, 2012,

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us and make those hastening to attain your promises heirs to the treasures of heaven.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How has God shown mercy to me?

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

John Bernadoni became known as Francis because of his early affection for French fashions and the French way of life. He is better known as a tireless worker for peace and a lover of animals. In his day he and his followers invited all people to look at the gospel as a mirror and to make the necessary adjustment. Many people think of St. Francis as a rebel or a "Hippie". Yes, he was counter cultural in that he chose the gospel way of life. His life and that of his followers were absolutely orthodox. They had a remarkable devotion to the Church, to the Sacraments and to the Pope. He sought and received recognition for his followers from Pope Innocent III.

Poverty, Chastity and Obedience were the vows that the Franciscans lived by. St. Francis' first undertaking was to repair local churches that had fallen into disrepair because of lack of use. The church had lost its credibility, it had moved away from the gospel values. St. Francis asked his followers to act humbly. He did not accept ordination in the priesthood, he stayed a deacon so as not to have the adulation of people. Joyful singing was part of his life as he and his followers moved from town to town.

Within ten years of their charter from Innocent III the Franciscans were five thousand in number. At their first general chapter in 1221, five hundred came seeking admission. The Franciscans preached in the language of the people and included non-ordained people in their order by establishing The Third Order. Men and women continued to work in their professions, raise families and lived a modified version of the Franciscan rule. The faithful shared the spiritual advantages of close association with the Friars through prayer and works of charity. Such was St. Francis humble and joyful life that he was canonized within two years of his death.

Here at St. Teresa's we will celebrate his feast day by asking God to bless our animals in St. Francis name. Our animals are a sign of God's unconditional Love for us. St. Francis of Assisi.....Pray for us.

God Bless, Fr. Mike
