Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 10, 2013

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying,
“Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?”
“Here I am, “I said, “send me!” — Isaiah 6:8

GOD’S SUMMONS

Confronted with God’s power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. “Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips,” he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus’ instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.”

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?” Isaiah answered, “Here I am, send me.”

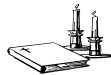

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won’t lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God’s messenger?

YOUR CHURCH AND MINE

Why did the assembly turn on Christ in His hometown? He told them that the prophets Elijah and Elisha implied that God's offer of salvation was no longer restricted to the Jews but to the Gentiles as well. Such an implication was not acceptable to those who thought of themselves as God's only chosen people.

I love my Catholic Faith, but I love my fellow ministers and their congregations as well. My family were always strong in their faith. My Grandfather and Father loved their Protestant neighbors and business partners. Our RCIA classes and those who join us from other denominations bring gifts to our community. I find it difficult to take when people stop coming to the Eucharist. Again, I feel richly blessed when family and parishioners return to the Sacraments. Those who have a strong faith will never be threatened by others. Let us during this Lent and this Year Of Faith learn to appreciate our Catholic faith more. Let us pray with our Christian neighbors here in Auburn as we journey towards Easter together.

YOUR CHURCH AND MINE

*You go to your Church, and I'll go to mine,
But let's walk along together;
Our Father has built them side by side,
So let's walk along together.
The road is rough and the way is long,
But we'll help each other over;
You go to your Church and I'll go to mine,
But let's walk along together.*

*You go to your Church, and I'll go to mine,
But let's walk along together;
Our heavenly Father is the same,
So let's walk along together.
The chimes of your Church ring loud and clear,
They chime with the chimes of my Church,
You go to your Church, and I'll go to mine,
But let's walk along together.*

*You go to your Church, and I'll go to mine,
But let's walk along together;
Our heavenly Father loves us all
So let's walk along together.
The Lord will be at my Church today,
But he'll be at your Church also;
You go to your Church, and I'll go to mine,
But let's walk along together.*

(Phillips H. Lord)

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles: A priest decided to get back in shape during Lent—so he walked four miles a day. During his walk on a cold day when he was bundled up in his overcoat, he was held up by a robber with a handgun. "Hand me over your wallet." the robber commanded. The priest slowly opened the front of his overcoat to get his wallet and the robber's eyes dropped when he saw the priests collar. The robber said "Sorry Father, I'm a Catholic and I would never rob a priest." The priest trying to compose himself took out a pack of cigarettes he offered one to the robber who said, "No, Father, I'm off them for Lent."

Old quarterbacks never die. They just pass away.

The advantage of running everyday is that you die healthier.
