Second Sunday of Lent
February 24, 2013

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?

— Psalm 27:1

TRUST

“In God We Trust” marks the currency of our nation. It should mark our lives as well. In fact, however, we hesitate to trust others, including God, absolutely. We prefer to hold our trust in reserve, fearful of being hurt or betrayed. Today’s readings remind us that Lent is a season of trust—a trust that transforms.

God makes a remarkable promise to Abraham. To receive this promise, all Abraham need do is trust. Paul tells the Philippians that they too must trust that they are the beneficiaries of God’s bountiful grace; that they are not citizens of any earthly kingdom, but citizens of heaven. These two readings invite us to hear the Gospel account of deep trust—trust that God will fulfill all promises and that Jesus’ passage will lead to transformation and new life.

CONFIRMATION 2013

In Ezekiel Chapter 37:1-14, God promises to place a new Spirit within His people. He would give them hearts of flesh instead of stony hearts. "I will put my Spirit in you that you may live—I have promised, and I will do it, says the Lord." God offers us a life full of enthusiasm, a word from the Greek meaning "In God". When we receive the sacraments we accept God's gift of Himself. In Romans 8:26 "The Spirit too comes to help us." The Spirit dwelling within us, gives our efforts our joys and sufferings the same nobility we see in the life and struggles of Christ. "The deepened presence of the Spirit is meant to sustain us in a lifetime of witness to Christ and service to others." (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1302, 1303).

Confirmation is a special day of God's grace for the Confirmandi, their families and our parish. A very special welcome to Bishop Jaime Soto who will confirm our young men and women, and our young at heart. Please join your prayers with those who are confirmed and may the Holy Spirit bless and renew us.

God Bless, Fr. Mike

Giggles: A homeless man is standing outside a very expensive hotel when people from a charity ball emerge. The homeless man approaches a woman and asks for money for a cup of coffee. The woman replies, "What is wrong with you, I just came from a fundraiser for the homeless. I spent two thousand dollars on an outfit, three hundred to have my hair done, five hundred for shoes, the tickets to the ball cost a thousand dollars . . . How dare you ask me for money after I've spent so much on you!"

If it weren't for marriage, men would go through life thinking they had no faults at all.

A seven year old boy had misbehaved and was sent to bed just after dinner. Later his parents were passing his door and heard the following prayer, "Dear God, please don't send my parents anymore kids. They don't know how to treat the one they got."

MASS FOR POPE BENEDICT XVI

Bishop Jaime Soto invites you to join him in a concelebrated Mass for Pope Benedict, Friday, March 1st at 12:10pm at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. The Mass will offer thanks to God for Pope Benedict's ministry as Chief Shepherd of the Church. This will also be a time to pray for the Church during this historic transition, in particular to implore the Holy Spirit to guide the cardinals as they meet in Conclave to elect a new pope. May the Mother of God be with them during this critical time, as she was with the Apostles on the First Pentecost.

TOWN HALL MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

As the Cardinals convene at the Vatican to select the next Vicar of Christ, we, the faithful, find ourselves on the verge of a new era in Church history. The world's entire Christian community excitedly awaits their decision and the changes inherent in a new papacy. But change is also afoot here at St. Teresa of Avila.

Tuesday, March 12th at 7:00pm here at St. Teresa's Church, our parish council will be hosting our second Town Hall meeting in three years. Using your input the parish council prioritizes and advises our pastor, Fr. Mike, as to the needs of the parish. Our emphasis over the past two years has been to strengthen the parish through growth in membership, paying down the debt, improving the facilities, as well as deepening the faith and ministerial work of our parishioners. The continued vitality of St. Teresa of Avila is contingent upon all of us becoming more involved.
