The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 2, 2013

[A]s often as you eat this bread and drink the cup,
you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

— 1 Corinthians 11:26

APPRECIATING THE EUCHARIST

For centuries today's feast was called Corpus Christi (the Body of Christ) and was observed on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday. In many countries it has now been moved to Sunday, so that more people may participate in its celebration. In its present form, the liturgy of this day focuses our attention on the meaning of the Eucharist that we celebrate so often.

Today's reading from Genesis tells how "Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine" and prayed over Abram. Though it took place nearly two thousand years before Jesus, this event has long been used by the Church as an ancient foreshadowing of the Eucharist.

The reading from Paul's Letter to the Corinthians is the same one we hear proclaimed on Holy Thursday, retelling the story of the first blessing and sharing of bread and wine at the Last Supper. Luke's tale of the miraculous feeding of the crowd in today's Gospel is also clearly intended to evoke the Eucharist. Thus today's readings give us three opportunities to deepen our appreciation of the Body and Blood of Christ.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GRADUATES!

GRADUATION 2013

Dear Graduates, there is happiness in seeing you graduate and yet there is a sense of loss for all of us. We will miss your warm smiles and delightful personalities. Like the first Pentecost, we ask God to give you His Spirit. You are now ambassadors for God and our Catholic School.

The ideals of our faith are, respect for God, respect for others and respect for yourself. This is contained in our parish mission to be a welcoming people and a hospitable people respecting the dignity of every human being. You are a people blessed with abundant gifts and talents called to share with others.

On your journey you will encounter people whose philosophy is, "To take whatever you can without thinking of others." You and I know what Christ said: "Love others like I Loved you. . . Do not invite only to your gatherings those who can pay you back... When I was hungry you gave me to eat, when I was a stranger you welcomed me, when I was sick or in prison you visited me. . . .What you do to others you do to me." It takes courage to be different, it takes God's Spirit to live fully.

As our school graduates go forward, and as all Auburn graduates move on, they have our prayers, love and support.

*"We thank you, God of mysterious ways that you have a holy design for all graduates.
We rejoice that each of them are special to you,
that their names are written
in the palm of Your hand,
and that their place in history
and their purpose for existing is known within Your heart.*

*We ask, Lord our God,
to Bless the graduates through life.
Be their ever-near companion,
and spread the road before them
with beauty and adventure.
May the blessings of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with them throughout life's journey and keep them in Your Love and Peace.*

APRECIAR LA EUCARISTÍA

Durante siglos, la fiesta que hoy celebramos se llamó Corpus Christi (Cuerpo de Cristo) y se conmemoraba el jueves siguiente al Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad. En muchos países ha sido movida al domingo siguiente, para que más personas puedan participar de esta celebración. Hoy en día, la liturgia de esta fiesta concentra nuestra atención en el significado de la Eucaristía, que tantas veces recibimos.

La lectura de hoy del Génesis nos dice cómo “Melquisedec, rey de Salem, presentó pan y vino” y bendijo a Abram. Aunque esto tuvo lugar casi dos mil años antes de Cristo, este momento ha sido usado siempre por la Iglesia como un anuncio de la Eucaristía.

La lectura de la carta de Pablo a los corintios es la misma que se proclama el Jueves Santo, volviéndonos a contar la historia de la primera bendición y distribución del pan y el vino en la Última Cena. La historia de Lucas sobre la multiplicación milagrosa de los panes y los peces para alimentar a una multitud en el Evangelio de hoy es una clara alusión a la Eucaristía. Por tanto, las tres lecturas de hoy nos brindan la oportunidad de profundizar nuestro aprecio por el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Perú tiene más de 3000 fiestas cada año, normalmente en torno al santo patrón de algún pueblo. La celebración de Corpus Christi es celebrada en todo el país. Pero es más llamativa en Cusco. Durante el día se escucha el repique de María Angola, la campana más grande de todo Perú, que existe desde el siglo XVI.

La celebración incluye una procesión con quince santos y vírgenes del siglo XVII, que vienen desde sus santuarios hasta la barroca Catedral de Cusco para honrar el Cuerpo de Jesús. Estas imágenes son cargadas por la plaza de armas antes de llegar a la catedral donde se quedarán hasta el octavo día. Según los peruanos los santos y vírgenes pasan las siete noches platicando con el Señor de los temblores, bromeando y planificando el año que viene para sus parroquias. El último día los santos y vírgenes regresan a sus santuarios con otra procesión.

Estas dos procesiones nos recuerdan que por mucho que los latinoamericanos amemos y veneremos a los santos y vírgenes reconocemos que tanto ellos como nosotros están al servicio de Cristo Jesús.

Teacher: If I give you two rabbits and two rabbits and another two rabbits, how many rabbits have you got?

Patrick: Seven!

Teacher: No, listen carefully again. If I give you two rabbits and two rabbits and another two rabbits, how many rabbits have you got?

Patrick: Seven!

Teacher: Let's try this another way. If I give you two apples and two apples and another two apples, how many apples have you got?

Patrick: Seven!

Teacher: How on earth do you work out that three lots of two rabbits in seven?

Patrick: I've already got one rabbit at home!
