You changed my mourning into dancing;
O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

— Psalm 30:12, 13

HOPE AND LIFE

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

SUFFERING

Suffering is not something we should seek. Jesus did not seek suffering, and Gethsemane makes that clear. Suffering will inevitably be part of the Christian life as it was part of Christ's life. His followers will suffer for standing for the values He stood for, and associating with the people He associated with. St. Paul tells us when Christ assumed our condition, He put aside the glory that belonged to Him as the Son of God. It was His Life, Passion and Death in obedience to His Father that led to His Glory.

The late Christopher Reeve is remembered especially for his role as "Superman". When the movie was first released, the question he was most frequently asked was "What is a hero?" The answers he gave then were as follows: "Someone who performs a courageous action without considering the consequences, or a captured soldier who never stops trying to escape." He also shared his heroes: Charles Lindbergh, John F. Kennedy and John Wayne.

In 1995 Reeve had an accident which left him paralyzed . Then, he shared his new thoughts on what it is to be a hero. "A hero is someone who finds strength to keep going in spite of overwhelming obstacles, or a person who enables others to overcome these obstacles".

When Christ said, "That the Son of man is destined to suffer grievously -," Peter and the apostles did not want to accept that kind of Messiah, a suffering Messiah. Suffering is part of life, but we do not suffer alone because of Christ's Presence and the presence of His followers.

Last Sunday I shared the story of a Peruvian woman who told my friend, Fr. Brian Crowley, "That because of the Mass she felt she mattered to God. He is with me in the Mass, to tell me He is present in all my needs, especially in my tough times."

God Bless, Fr. Mike

Giggles:

A priest was racing down a highway, feeling secure in a group, all traveling at the same speed. However, as he passed a speed trap he got pulled over. He said to the officer: "Listen, I know I was speeding, but I don't think it's fair. There were others around me who were going just as fast. Why should I be the one to get a ticket?"

"Ever go fishing?" asked the officer. "Yeah", replied the bewildered priest.

The officer grinned and added: "Did you ever catch them all?"

A man revealed to his work mates that on a romantic impulse he had asked his girlfriend to marry him. "What did she say?" asked one . "I don't know," he said. "She hasn't e-mailed me back yet".

A new bride was shy and embarrassed at being a honeymooner, she didn't want attention drawn to herself. She said to her husband, "Is there a way that we can make it look like we're not. . . just married?" "Sure" he said. "You carry the suitcases."

Teacher: "If you had ten dollars and I asked you for a loan of seven, how much would you have left?"

Patrick: "Ten dollars."

Teacher: "How do you make it ten?"

Patrick: "Well, you may ask for a loan of seven, but that don't mean you'll get it."

Convertiste mi duelo en alegría te alabaré por eso eternamente

— Salmo 30 (29):12, 13

ESPERANZA Y VIDA

Las Escrituras del hoy nos cuentan la historia de dos viudas. La primera lectura relata la difícil situación en la que vivía la viuda con la que el profeta Elías se quedó y el Evangelio cuenta la historia de la viuda de Naín, en cada una de estas historias cada viuda el hijo único de ellas murió. En la cultura de esos países en ese tiempo, el hijo era el sustento para la viuda y quien además continuaba la descendencia familiar que era igual a la inmortalidad. La viuda cuyo único hijo hubiera muerto perdía toda esperanza.

Elías y Jesús son los restauradores de esperanza; ellos devuelven la vida a sus hijos. San Pablo, metafóricamente hablando, revivió de la muerte a la vida cuando él se convirtió después de la llamada de Dios de la que él habla en la segunda lectura.

¿A qué están llamados los cristianos hoy en día? Quizá no podemos revivir de la muerte, pero quizá podemos reanimar la esperanza de un padre o una madre soltera. Quizá no podemos convertir a un perseguidor como Pablo, pero si abiertamente hacemos vida el Evangelio en nuestras vidas, podríamos tocar una vida con la Buena Nueva.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 9 de junio del año 1597, falleció el jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo “apóstol de Brasil” fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y evangelizadores en Brasil. Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupí, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina. Eventualmente fundó el Colegio Jesuita de São Paulo de Piratininga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el Evangelio en Brasil, país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el “santo volador” por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el Evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dice el profeta Isaías: “Que hermosos son los pies del que trae buena nuevas” (Isaías 52:7).
