Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 23, 2013

There is neither Jew nor Greek,
there is neither slave nor free person,
there is not male and female;
for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

— Galatians 3:28

A PERSONAL RESPONSE OF FAITH

Today’s Gospel starts with a conversation with which Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem—and the cross. As his followers, we strive to march with him, even to the cross.

Paul’s Letter to the Galatians tells us that we who have been baptized have “clothed” ourselves with Christ. Being one with Christ, we must no longer discriminate according to nationality or race, according to social status, according to gender.

The prophet Zechariah, centuries before anyone heard of Jesus, spoke of how the people find God’s message uncomfortable, and so turn against the messengers. Later, though, the people awaken to the realization of what they have done and are moved to repentance. Thus, they are always welcomed back by God, who always gives us grace to do the right thing, however difficult it may be.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL

Have you considered joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Next meeting 7/9/13 @ 6:45pm. Please call 530-906-8311 for location of meeting.

We are feeding breakfast for 35-40 people every Sunday. We provide rent assistance, sleeping bags and bus tickets for the needy in our parish.

In the Gospel reading today, Jesus tells us that "whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it." Your donations to St. Vincent de Paul bring Christ's love and compassion to the poor.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

The VBS team and I are sad to announce the cancelling of the program this year. We did not get enough volunteers or children signed up. It takes many weeks of preparation and supplies that need to be purchased in advance. Next year's VBS will depend on the feedback we get in response to this letter. Please let us dialogue.

Please remember VBS is a wonderfully fun way to get children to grow closer to God. They hear stories and see reenactments to reinforce the gospels, and then learn how to apply the virtues to their daily lives. In a world that is so challenging, it is vital to have a strong relationship with God and establish His spiritual foundation early in life. We try to build character and friendships in these young children and teen helpers. Next year consider volunteering for our program. It has been said it takes a village to raise a child, and we at VBS need your help.

ON A COURSE—FREE AT LAST

I am heading to Ireland for 4 weeks. Fr. Michael McKeon and Fr. Arnold Parungao will be helping God run the parish. Last year my sisters and brothers forced me to do a lot of work around our home. This year, weather permitting, I'll be on the golf courses. I have a priest friend in Ireland who loves golf and the horses. His answering machine always answers, "Father is away on a course." That is the message I will leave here on my answering machine as I head to Ireland.

The day after I arrive, my brother's bank is taking their clients to the K Club in Kildare. The K Club is where the Ryder Cup was held. It will be great to play the course where Pádraig Harrington and Europe won. Best of all it will be free—the bank is paying!

I love Ireland, it's home with family. I also love Ireland for the way they tell tall tales.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles:

Hail Mary's: A young Irish girl was telling her parents all about her first confession and the penance she received.
"I got two Hail Mary's," she said, "But I didn't know the second one, so. . . . I said the first one twice."

A woman called on her Scottish friend and found him stripping the wallpaper off the walls.
"Oh, I see you are decorating," she said.
"No," he replied. "I'm moving house."

Jack got fired from his construction job. His friend Joe asked, "What happened".
Jack replied, "You know our foreman,.....the one who stands around and watches the other men work?.....Well, he got jealous of me,.....everyone thought I was the foreman."

Decimosegundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
23 de junio de 2013

Ya no existe diferencia entre
 judíos y no judíos,
 entre esclavos y libres,
 entre varón y mujer,
 porque todos ustedes son uno en Cristo Jesús.

— Gálatas 3:28

RESPUESTA PERSONAL DE FE

Después de pasar la Cuaresma, la Pascua y los días posteriores a esta fiesta, entramos de nuevo en el Tiempo Ordinario. Este año las lecturas del Evangelio son tomadas de san Lucas, comenzando hoy con una conversación con la que Jesús comienza su camino a Jerusalén –y a la cruz. Como seguidores suyos, procuramos marchar con él, incluso hasta la cruz.

La carta de Pablo a los gálatas nos dice que nosotros los bautizados debemos “revestirnos” de Cristo. Al ser uno con Cristo, no debemos hacer discriminaciones de raza, nacionalidad, clases social o género.

El profeta Zacarías, muchos siglos antes de que nadie oyera hablar de Jesús, explicaba cómo el pueblo iba a rechazar el mensaje de Dios, encontrándolo incómodo, y se volverían contra los mensajeros. Sin embargo, luego la gente se daría cuenta de lo que habían hecho y se arrepentirían. Y Dios los acogería de nuevo, pues siempre nos concede la gracia para hacer lo correcto, sin importar lo difícil que sea.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Según san Mateo, una noche mientras los discípulos estaban en la barca de Pedro, Jesús vino hacia ellos caminando sobre el mar. Ellos se espantaron creyendo que era un fantasma de algún pescador pero él los calmó diciendo “¡Ánimo!, que soy yo; no teman”. Debió ser impactante ver al Señor caminar sobre las aguas, especialmente en una época donde las aguas venían consideradas como el caos.

En varias partes de latinoamérica los fieles celebran a distintos santos con procesiones de barcos sobre ríos o mares. En el Puerto de Paita, Perú se llevan a los santos Pedro y Pablo en una procesión acuática. San Pedro, que fue pescador, está en casa sobre la barca, ya que normalmente son barcas de pescadores las que forman la procesión. Esta procesión reconoce el caos del mar reconociendo a los pescadores, que durante el año perdieron sus vidas en el mar, con guirnaldas lanzadas a la bahía. Pero, esta procesión no se espanta del mar ya que es una fiesta en honor de dos siervos de aquel que camina sobre las aguas, dominando el mar.
