The Ascension of the Lord
May 12, 2013

God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy;
the LORD, amid trumpet blasts.

— Psalm 47:6

WAITING FOR THE SPIRIT

In today’s Gospel from Luke, Jesus recalls his (and the apostles’) mission. He directs them to return to the city and wait for the promise of the Father. He blesses them and is “taken up” into heaven. This “taking up” suggests being carried up like an acceptable sacrifice ascending to the throne of God. The apostles, nourished on scriptures that spoke of acceptable sacrifices, understand this. They go to Jerusalem to wait and pray.

The first reading reiterates and further develops this experience. Here too, Jesus directs his apostles to return to Jerusalem and wait. But something new is disclosed: they are to await the powerful baptism of the Holy Spirit.

We know that in a few short days the powerful Spirit will come to the apostles. We can be grateful that they stayed and waited, whatever their trepidation. From their example, we learn what it takes to wait and be open to the coming of the Holy Spirit.

MOTHERS DAY 2013

A few years ago I heard Fr. Dan Madigan say around Mothers Day, that Mothers have a lot to say and a lot more to give. For the young and for those who's Mother's are alive, please don't tune out what your Mother is saying. . . and if you are looking for a yardstick as regards giving . . . Copy your Mom. If you are a lot older like me and your Mother is deceased, spend some of Mother's Day recalling your Mom's sayings and write them down. Then promise to do something beautiful for her and our Blessed Mother during the coming week.

MOTHER'S DAY PRAYER

*Heavenly Father,
You have given each person the Precious gift of having a mother.*

*Through the ages, mothers have
Been the unsung heroes of our lives,
Content with little things; a smile,
A thank you, a token remembrance.*

*May all Mothers learn from the Example set by Jesus' mother, Mary,
Our Mother in Heaven.*

*Let us always remember our Mothers
As a treasure which You have given us,
Whether she is still here or in heaven.*

*Today and every day, pour down your grace
On all Mothers and help each one
Of us to live our lives based on the good
Examples, love and devotion which
We have learned from our Mothers.*

Amen

ESPERANDO EL ESPÍRITU

En el Evangelio de Lucas hoy, Jesús recuerda su misión (y la de los apóstoles). Les ordena regresar a la ciudad y esperar la promesa del Padre. Los bendice y es “llevado al cielo”. Este “ser llevado” sugiere ser elevado como un sacrificio aceptable que asciende al trono de Dios. Los apóstoles, nutridos por Escrituras que hablan de sacrificios aceptables, lo comprenden. Ellos van a Jerusalén a esperar y a orar.

La primera lectura reitera y desarrolla más esta experiencia. Aquí, también, Jesús ordena a sus apóstoles regresar a Jerusalén y esperar. Pero les revela algo nuevo: deben esperar el poderoso bautismo del Espíritu Santo.

Sabemos que dentro de pocos días el poderoso Espíritu vendrá a los apóstoles. Podemos agradecerles que se quedaron y esperaron, a pesar de sus temores. De su ejemplo aprendamos lo que significa esperar y aceptar la venida del Espíritu Santo.
