May 19, 2013

[I]n one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.

— 1 Corinthians 12:13a

THE DAY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

John’s Gospel tells us that when Jesus “breathed” on the disciples, the Holy Spirit came into them, empowering them to forgive sins and to gather all people into union with one another.

The book of Genesis had explained the divisions among nations with the story of the Tower of Babel. In rebellious pride, human beings had struggled to become equal to God. The result was chaos, strife, the inability even to speak the same language among themselves. Today’s reading from Acts tells how the Spirit has just the opposite effect. Strangers from many nations hear and understand one another, each in his or her own tongue.

This message of unity in the Spirit is repeated in the reading from Corinthians. There are many gifts, many ways to serve. One way is not “higher,” nor one person “better” than another. There is but one Spirit, who accomplishes all the different works we do, acting through us.

PENTECOST 2013

Today the Catholic Church has over a billion members scattered all over the world. Everyone who witnessed the white smoke and the introduction of Pope Francis I, got the feeling of belonging to something great. It was a wonderful experience for us Catholics. We felt buoyed up and carried along because we felt that God was close to us.

Pentecost

Today is the birthday of the Catholic Church. The Church was born in weakness and frailty. It had no property or assets. It's only resource was a small number of people. As they waited for The Holy Spirit, the followers of Christ all fit in one room. After receiving The Holy Spirit, they were united in enthusiasm, prayer and charity.

While it feels good to belong to something big, the Church should never forget it's humble origins. The Church has always been sustained by it's people under the guidance of The Holy Spirit. As a Church of prophets, martyrs, saints and sinners, . . .we need to always value the importance of the small. Each individual, each small community or parish is part of the experience and part of the life of the Catholic Church. Here at St. Teresa of Avila we are part of a parish, we have a sense of closeness and belonging.

It is a blessing to belong to the universal Church and it's mission. The experience of belonging to a parish is something that we as Catholics carry with us forever. When we meet Catholics from our home town the first thing they ask us is, "What parish did you belong to?" Each parish has the essentials. The simplicity of the Gospel, The Word of God and receiving The Lord in the Eucharist. Of course, we have the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who binds us together, helps us to share our gifts, and who helps us to be witnesses of Christ.

This Pentecost, may our prayers during the Mass awaken us to the gifts that God has given us for the benefit of His people. . . His Church.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Pupil:             Someone else's pants on.

EL DÍA DEL ESPÍRITU SANTO

El Evangelio de Juan nos dice que cuando Jesús “sopló” sobre los discípulos, el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre ellos dándoles poder de perdonar los pecados y de reunir a todos los pueblos.

El Génesis explica la división entre las naciones con la historia de la torre de Babel. En orgullosa rebelión, los seres humanos luchaban por ser iguales a Dios. El resultado fue caos, sufrimiento y la inhabilidad hasta de hablar el mismo idioma entre ellos. La lectura de hoy de los Hechos nos dice que el Espíritu tiene justamente el efecto contrario. Extranjeros de muchas naciones oyen y se entienden entre ellos, cada uno en su propia lengua

Este mensaje de unidad en el Espíritu se repite en la lectura de Corintios. Hay diferentes dones espirituales, muchos modos de servir. Un modo no es “superior,” ni una persona es “mejor” que otra. Hay un solo Espíritu que obra todo en todos.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hoy celebramos la Pascua de Pentecostés. Esta es una de las tres Pascuas que celebramos los cristianos. Las otras dos son la Pascua de Resurrección (o Pascua Florida) y la Pascua del Nacimiento de Jesús. Estas tres solemnidades cristianas celebran tres momentos claves en el plan de salvación: la Encarnación del Verbo Divino (Jesús), su Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección y el descenso de su Espíritu Santo sobre la Iglesia. Pascua viene siendo el nombre de la principal solemnidad del calendario Judío y recuerda la liberación del pueblo de Israel de la esclavitud. Los cristianos hemos tomado ese nombre por reconocernos como descendientes de Abraham y porque en nuestras tres pascuas celebramos que Jesús viene a salvarnos, o sea, a liberarnos del pecado y sus consecuencias tanto personales como sociales. En muchas partes el titulo de Pascua se ha dejado para hablar de la Fiesta de la Navidad y la Fiesta de Pentecostés. Esto es una lástima ya que el recordar la Pascua debe impulsar al cristiano a obrar por la liberación de todos para que el mundo se salve por Jesucristo.
