Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 10, 2013

My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
my feet have not faltered.
I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God.

— Psalm 17:5-6a

THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD

In the Apostles’ Creed we proclaim that we “believe in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.” Today’s readings invite us to explore these beliefs.

The passage from Second Maccabees makes it clear that belief in the resurrection of the dead was not born in Christianity, but in a time preceding Jesus’ coming. The martyred brothers proclaim their conviction that God will raise them to new life. No threat of death can bring them to break one of their religious laws. Death of their bodies is no death at all, compared to the spiritual death that would result from transgressing the law.

The silly riddle about marriage put to Jesus in the Gospel gives him an opportunity to speak of the “coming age,” when no one will be given in marriage, and no one will be liable to death. Jesus too stresses how ancient is this teaching, attributing this belief to Moses, who knew that God is the God of the living.

LifeTeen welcomes all high school teens of the parish. Unless otherwise noted, Life Nights include dinner and run from 6:30 to 8:30pm in the hall. For more information, call Brenda Fischer at (530) 305-9919.

I am asking you to be generous in helping our homeless in Auburn. This year our Dinner Dance called "The Lord's Bounty" will be on Saturday, November 23rd and will help raise funds for some of God's special people. My Ignatian friend, Paul Comiskey and I share a great love for the prayer of St. Ignatius. Please God, Paul's insights, which follow below, will help all of us to live this prayer.

Dearest Lord, teach me to be generous (1)
Teach me to serve you as you deserve (2)
To give and not to count the cost (3)
To fight and not to heed the wounds (4)
To toil and not to seek for rest (5)
To labor and not to seek reward (6)
Save that of knowing that I am doing your will. (7)
Amen

Comment (1) The word "generous" comes from the same root as gene or genetics. It means to be of noble birth or character. It means to be a person for whom giving comes naturally.

Comment (2) There is not a give and take between us and God. When we serve God generously the return we get is more of His gifts. The psalmist said it: "What return shall I make to the Lord for all He has given me. I shall take up the cup of His salvation and call on the name of the Lord." The more we give to God, the more God gives back to us.

Comment (3) To give and not to count the cost means that we throw away the scale by which we measure what we give and what we receive. That is a freedom that only the Lord can give us.

Comment (4) Ignatius uses soldier image when he talks about fighting and not heeding the wounds. If we commit ourselves as Christians there will be wounds. We will feel wounded when we confront our own sinfulness and failures. We will be misunderstood. We will be wounded by the opposition of others.

Comment (5) To toil means to persist. It means to continue to struggle. Jesus expressed it when He said that anyone who puts his hands to the plow and looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of God.

Comment (6) Laboring and not seeking reward is the kind of freedom that only comes from the belief that we are doing what the Lord wants us to do.

Comment (7) Ignatius believed that we can find God's will for us and that is the only way we arrive at the Peace of Christ in our lives.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike & Paul Comiskey

LA RESURRECCIÓN DE LOS MUERTOS

Cada domingo proclamamos: “Creemos en la comunión de los santos, el perdón de los pecados, la resurrección de la carne, y la vida eterna”. Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a explorar estas creencias.

El pasaje de 2 Macabeos deja claro que la creencia en la resurrección de los muertos no se originó en el cristianismo sino antes de la venida de Jesús. Los hermanos mártires y la madre de ellos proclaman su convicción de que Dios los resucitará a una nueva vida. Ningún temor a la muerte puede hacerlos romper una de sus leyes religiosas. La muerte de sus cuerpos no es muerte en absoluto comparada con la muerte espiritual que resultaría de la trasgresión de la ley.

El tonto acertijo sobre el matrimonio que le presenta a Jesús en el Evangelio le da la oportunidad de hablar sobre “el mundo futuro”, cuando nadie se casará y nadie morirá. Jesús pone énfasis en la antigüedad de esta enseñanza, atribuyendo esta creencia a Moisés quien sabía que Dios es el Dios de los vivos.
