Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 1, 2013

You have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God.

— Hebrews 12:22a

HUMILITY

Today’s reading from Sirach celebrates what will become the theme of today’s Gospel: humility. Pride causes us to demand from others an exalted estimate of our status, but humility allows us to see things more clearly. It allows us a broader perspective. Humility promises us the favor of God and the love of those who know us.

The second reading is a study in contrasts: the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai and the giving of salvation on Mount Zion. The Law’s appearance is greeted with solemnity, mystery, even fear. But Christians are not to be afraid. Coming to God’s mountain with Jesus, “the mediator of a new covenant,” is a happy, exuberant experience.

The parable in today’s Gospel concerns the danger of pride and the necessity of humility. The banquet setting, often used by Jesus, is a symbol of heaven’s abundance and of the fulfillment of God’s promise. The parable is not simply good advice on how to avoid embarrassment; it is about salvation.

LOVED AND WANTED
R.C.I.A.—RITE OF CATHOLIC INITIATION OF ADULTS

Something beautiful happened during the recent conclave to elect a new Pope. Cardinals from all over the world kept asking for a church that was more open to the presence of the Holy Spirit. Besides God speaking to all people, down through the ages, God especially speaks through people who are open to His Spirit.

Each year our prayer is that the Holy Spirit is directing you towards a fuller life with the Catholic Church. Our R.C.I.A program will help you walk with Christ towards Easter and beyond. R.C.I.A. means Rite of Catholic Initiation of Adults. During these past seven years since our parish was established, we have been blessed with one hundred and fifty adults, joining the Catholic Church during the Easter liturgies.

Our clergy, priests and deacons, along with Sr. Anita and the Mercy Sisters, and most of all our parish leadership teams have welcomed our candidates and catechumens to walk with Christ in the Catholic Church. Our R.C.I.A. program recognizes the work of the Holy Spirit in the lives of potential Catholics. The Holy Spirit is alive and active in everyone. People bring gifts from the churches of their past nobody comes empty handed when they join our church. Our prayer is that those who join us will have a fuller life of God's Spirit through the Sacraments, Revelation and our Traditions.

This year, our R.C.I.A. program is from September 9th until Pentecost 2014. Sure, there is sharing of knowledge, but we build community amongst our fellow pilgrims by sharing meals, by praying and by showing that each persons journey is sacred and special. Blessed are each one of us when we too realize how much we are loved and wanted by God. God loved us so much that He gave us His Beloved Son, Jesus Christ. Christ told us that the wayward and lost child is loved and wanted. Christ is the Good Shepherd and the Church shares that role of shepherding mankind.

Today we invite in Jesus' name those who are searching for greater meaning in their lives. As a community we pray that God's Holy Spirit is directing you towards the Catholic Church.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles: A man went into a pet shop to buy a parrot. The one he liked had two strings tied to his feet. "What are they for?" he asked the pet shop manager.
"He's a trained parrot.....used to be in the circus. If you pull the left string he says 'Hello', if you pull the right string he says 'Goodbye'."
"What happens if you pull both strings at the same time?"
"I fall off my perch, you fool!" said the parrot.

A business executive who was nervous about flying asked the flight attendant,
"Do these planes crash often?"
"No", she smiled, "Only once".

Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
1^o de septiembre de 2013

Ustedes, en cambio, se han acercado a Sión, el monte y la ciudad del Dios viviente.

— Hebreos 12:22a

HUMILDAD

La lectura de hoy del Eclesiástico ensalza lo que será el tema del Evangelio de hoy: la humildad. El orgullo hace que exijamos a los demás que exalten nuestro estatus, pero la humildad nos lleva a ver las cosas más claramente. Nos brinda una perspectiva más amplia. La humildad nos garantiza el favor de Dios y el amor de las personas que nos conocen.

La segunda lectura es un estudio de contrastes: por un lado la entrega de las Tablas de la Ley en el Monte Sinaí, y por otro la entrega de la salvación en el monte Sión. La primera fue recibida con solemnidad, misterio, hasta con temor. Pero los cristianos no deben temer. Subir al monte de Dios con Jesús, “el mediador de la nueva alianza” es una experiencia alegre y espléndida.

La parábola en el Evangelio de hoy se refiere al peligro del orgullo y a la necesidad de la humildad. La imagen de la fiesta del banquete, con frecuencia usada por Jesús, es un símbolo de la abundancia del cielo y del cumplimiento de las promesas de Dios. La parábola no es simplemente un buen consejo sobre cómo evitar pasar una vergüenza; se trata de la salvación.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Por esta época recordamos la natividad de María, madre de Jesús. María es muy popular entre muchos pueblos y en especial en los pueblos latinos. Al principio del mes de septiembre dos naciones toman la fiesta de su nacimiento para recordarla bajo el título de la Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre en Cuba y de Nuestra Señora de Coromoto en Venezuela.

La Virgen del Cobre fue descubierta en el siglo XVI por dos indígenas y un niño africano llamados los tres Juanes, cuando estos fueron al mar en busca de sal. Después de una fuerte tempestad ellos encontraron flotando sobre las olas una pequeña imagen de María con el Niño Dios en brazos. La imagen flotaba sobre una tabla que decía yo soy la Virgen de la Caridad. Milagrosamente la imagen estaba seca.

También en el siglo XVI la Virgen se le apareció al cacique de los indígenas Coromoto en Venezuela. Estos resistían la evangelización y ella se apareció sobre las aguas invitándolos al bautizo cristiano.

Estas dos manifestaciones marianas llevan a Jesús en brazos recordándonos que María nada puede sin Cristo.
