Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time March 2, 2014

Can a mother forget her infant,
be without tenderness for the child of her womb?
Even should she forget, I will never forget you.

— Isaiah 49:15

GOD IS A LOVING PARENT

Some scripture passages require a good deal of study before they yield their inner meaning. Not so with today's Gospel, a continuation of the Sermon on the Mount. Here we have Jesus' well-known sayings about God's care for us. "No one can serve two masters" and "Look at the birds in the sky" have become idioms in our culture. Perhaps they have become too familiar. Jesus' point is a simple one—if we keep our hearts set on the important things, God will take care of the rest. His use of simple images from nature—birds, flowers, grass—would have resonated just as deeply with his listeners then as they do today.

The brief passage from Isaiah, situated as it is in a longer section on the restoration of Zion, uses a wonderful feminine image to portray God's care for us. Even more than a mother's care for her own child is God's attentiveness to our needs. Juxtaposed with the Gospel reading, an image of God as doting parent surfaces. No wonder St. Paul in his letter to the Corinthians is more confident in the judgment of the Lord than in any human assessment! For those whose hearts are set on God's priorities, the time of judgment can bring nothing but good.

IT'S YOUR TURN

I'm sure most of you as adults have had this experiencewhere you are in company of friends and one skips out when it's their turn to buy. In Ireland, believe it or not, friends and neighbor go out for a beer. We have what we call "the round system" Each person takes their turn at buying drinks for the group. There is always one person who skips out to the bathroom when it's their round. The reputation they get is hard to forget. Sometimes we pooled our money because we couldn't afford for each person to buy a full round.

I was lucky when I was in my teens that my Father was a builder and I earned some money. Also, relatives were generous . . .so I had money. The friends I had then, I still have. In the olden days I always took them to the movies (pictures), I treated them. Now, when I go home they never let me buy anything. Con Sheehan always reminds them, "Without you Mike, we would not have seen any movies when we were young. Now it's our turn." Again as a young priest, older priests treated me. Now, it's my turn . . .Arnold.

For many of us with the ONE Campaign, it is our turn. For others, it's time to pool our resources and give something towards our parish goal.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

There was a Catholic man who always said to his wife on Sunday morning, "You can go to Mass for both of us". They both died in a road accident and arrived at heaven's gate. St. Peter said to the man's wife, "Mrs., You can come in for both of you."

¿Puede acaso una madre olvidarse de su criatura
hasta dejar de enternecerse por el hijo de sus entrañas?
Aunque hubiera una madre que se olvidara,
yo nunca me olvidaré de ti.

— Isaías 49:15

DIOS ES UN PADRE AMOROSO

Algunas partes de las Escrituras requieren de conocer ciertos antecedentes históricos, prácticas culturales, etc., para entender su mensaje. Pero eso no pasa con el texto del Evangelio de hoy, una continuación del Sermón de la Montaña. Aquí tenemos las frases de Jesús diciendo cómo Dios cuida de nosotros. Por ejemplo, las frases: “Nadie puede servir a dos amos” y “Miren las aves del cielo” se usan tan frecuente en nuestra cultura. Quizá son tan populares. Jesús enfatiza una cosa tan sencilla, si ponemos nuestro corazón en cosas importantes, Dios proveerá el resto. La forma cómo Jesús relaciona cosas de la naturaleza, pájaros, flores, hierba, hicieron eco en los oídos de quienes lo escucharon entonces y de quienes hoy lo escuchan.

El pasaje breve de Isaías, que está tomado de un texto más amplio que trata de la restauración de Sión, utiliza una

Monday, April 14, 2014:

"The Union of Worship and Charity in the Life of the Church"

Bishop Jaime Soto
Bishop of Sacramento

The joys and hopes, the grief and anguish of the people of our time, especially of those who are poor Or afflicted, are the joys and hopes, the grief and the anguish of the followers of Christ as well. Nothing that Is genuinely human fails to find an echo in their hearts That is why they cherish a felling of deep solidarity with the human race and its history....and so....enter into dialogue with it about all of these various problems. Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World (Vatican II)

Please join with our bishops as they explore how we as Christians can engage the world around us, with all its joys and suffering, bringing the values of the Kingdom to bear on our world and culture. They will explore the intersection of faith with the arts and culture, politics and government, as well as our worship and the work of charity and justice. Enjoy some time with them also for refreshments, questions and answers and a discussion at the end.
