“I will ask the Father,
and he will give you . . . the Spirit of truth.”

— John 14:16-17

THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT

Do you recognize the sacrament that is celebrated in today’s first reading from the Acts of the Apostles? When Peter and John imposed hands on those who had been baptized, they received the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of confirmation. The reading from the First Letter of Peter and the passage from John’s Gospel both consider the results of our baptism and confirmation. Peter reminds us it is likely that we will have to suffer for what we believe.

In today’s Gospel Jesus speaks clearly about the Holy Spirit, referring to a “Paraclete,” one who will stand with us to defend us. Poignantly, Jesus promises his disciples, and all of us, “I will not leave you orphans.” He has never left his followers orphaned. We have always had the Holy Spirit to guide us.

Prayer for Graduates

Working for and with the Lord may not pay well,
But the retirement benefits are out of this world.

The joy of living in the Presence of God is what we pray for all the graduating students. When we move from grade school to high school, from high school to college and from college to our chosen careers, we keep moving into largely unknown worlds. Yes, we have the support of family and friends but most of all we have the abiding and caring Presence of God. Our lives have many goodbyes but also many more great new beginnings. Each place we have been, has been blessed by the Presence of God and wherever this life takes us the Holy Presence of God will be there to welcome us.

Prayer makes us aware of Gods Presence and God's Love for us. When I have been in tough situations I have never felt alone because of the prayers of family, friends and parishioners for me, which in turn have made me more aware of the Sacred Presence of God. Daily Mass gives us a chance to pray with and for others. Sometimes when life is troublesome and it is difficult to pray, it is comforting to know that our Church, our families and friends pray for us. This coming week let us pray for parish graduates and please God, they will live out the noble ideals of Christ which their parents and their teachers have labored to instill in them down through the years.

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
Courage to change the things I can;
And the wisdom to know the difference.
Living one day at a time;
Accepting hardship as a pathway to peace.
Taking as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it.
Trusting that He will make all things right, if I surrender to His will.
That I may be reasonably happy in this life,
And supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Congratulations to our graduates and God Bless.

Giggles: Women love cats. Cats are independent, the don't listen, they don't come when called, they like to stay out most of the night, and when they are at home they like to be left alone to sleep. Why can't women accept the same qualities in men?

Everyday this woman brushed her hair with a brush she left on the hall table as she rushed out to work. One evening she saw her son brushing their cat with her hair brush. "What do you think your doing?" she demanded.
Her son looked puzzled and said, "Mom, I do this every day."

A second grader prayed, "God, help me with the school bully. By the way, this is not the first time I spoke to you about this."

A graduate spoke to this parents, "Mom and Dadthe thousand dollars you promised me at graduationwell, you don't have to worry about it for this year."

Sexto Domingo de Pascua

25 de mayo de 2014

“Yo le rogaré al Padre
y él les enviará . . . el Espíritu de verdad”.

— Juan 14:16–17

EL PODER DEL ESPÍRITU

¿Reconoces el sacramento que se celebra en la primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles? Cuando Pedro y Juan impusieron las manos en los que habían bautizado, recibieron el Espíritu Santo en el sacramento de la Confirmación. La lectura de la primera carta de Pedro, y el pasaje del Evangelio de Juan, consideran los resultados de nuestro bautismo y confirmación. Pedro nos recuerda que lo más probable es que tengamos que sufrir por nuestras creencias.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos habla claramente sobre el Espíritu Santo, llamándolo “Defensor”, que estará junto a nosotros para defendernos. De manera muy significativa, Jesús promete a sus discípulos y a todos nosotros, “No los dejaré huérfanos”. Nunca ha dejado a sus seguidores huérfanos. Siempre hemos tenido al Espíritu Santo para guiarnos.

Part Three of Rediscovering Catholicism is subtitled “The Authentic Life.” To rediscover how to “set the whole world on fire”, here is a short study guide to help you read each chapter in Part Two with an essential guiding question in mind:

CHAPTER NINE—WHAT SETS THEM APART?

“There are two great differences between the heroes, leaders, champions, and saints that fill the history books and the rest of us. In the first place, they tended to have a singleness of purpose that penetrated every activity of their lives. And in the second place, they formed habits that helped them to achieve their goal... life giving habits that lead to excellence and holiness.” (114).

What are your legitimate needs, deepest desires and talents? How might God be using these to give your life purpose?

CHAPTER TEN—THEIR ATTRACTION AND INFLUENCE

“If you want a litmus test for choosing friends, use this question: Will spending time with this person make me a better person?” (125).

How will our personal pursuit of holiness lead to the blossoming of the Church?

CHAPTER ELEVEN—WHO WILL BE NEXT?

When asked by President Lincoln to take on a dangerous commission during the Civil War, a soldier once said, “I am willing to die for our cause.” Lincoln replied, “I have twenty-five thousand men who are willing to die for the cause. What I need is one who is willing to live for it.” (132).

What great cause are you willing to support with the moments of your life?

I encourage you to underline important passages and take notes as you read, especially relating to the guided question or to relevance in your own life. Please share thoughts and reflections with cnelson@saintjosephauburn.org.

Peace and Blessings,

Christopher J. Nelson
St. Joseph Catholic School Principal
