Pentecost Sunday
June 8, 2014

There appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.

— Acts 2:3

RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

At last! The power hinted at and the Spirit promised are unleashed on this holy day. We call it the birthday of the church. Try to listen to today's scripture passages with some sense of how electrifying these events must have been to those who lived through them. Up until now, they have been waiting in the upper room. In today's first reading, that room is filled with wind and fire and bold proclamations in foreign tongues.

In the second reading, Paul describes the Pentecost event, too. His description includes all of us. The Spirit lives on in the church in each of us who are members of the Body of Christ, given different gifts from the same Spirit. Only after Pentecost could the apostles look back and understand what Jesus meant when he said, as reported in today's Gospel reading, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

St. Teresa of Avila Conference

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international Catholic organization of lay persons whose purpose is to sanctify its members in the exercise of charity and help the poor in their corporal spiritual needs.

Here in St. Teresa's Conference we strive to assist people throughout the Auburn area. (Placer County) Our mission is to serve those who need help. These include single mothers, families in need, the disabled and sick, homeless and many others. We offer some assistance for rent, utility bills, food, gasoline, clothing and other items. Every Sunday morning a healthy breakfast is provided for the homeless after the 8:00am Mass a few blocks from St. Teresa's Church. Our St. Vincent de Paul trailer is on the site twice a month to provide essential items for those in need. We also refer clients to additional organizations which can help. Bringing spirituality and kindness to those we serve through our examples and words is the most important thing to do!

At St. Teresa's we are able to fulfill this ministry only through the generous donations of our parishioners, fund raising events and special collections. We accept donations of clothing for distribution. Currently our Conference needs men and women's jeans in small to medium sizes. Our funds are limited, our expenses constant. Your support and prayers are needed and greatly appreciated. To contact us: 530-906-8311

OPENING THE DOORS

At our school mass this morning there was the passing of the torch. Last week our graduates moved on in the name of our community to bring the Gospel message beyond the doors of our Church. This week our present students assumed new roles of leadership.

Today, we celebrate Pentecost. The apostles had spent years with the Master Teacher . . . Yet, after His Ascension they lacked courage. They gathered with our Blessed Mother in the upper room praying with the doors locked. With God's gift of the Holy Spirit they opened the doors and became His witnesses to a broken world. God still gives the gift of The Holy Spirit, especially at Confirmation and at Pentecost. "Come Holy Spirit and enkindle within us the fire of Your Love."

We became a church at Pentecost when the apostles left their fears behind. Every Pentecost we are invited and commissioned to be part of a community that opens the doors of our hearts for Christ, and in Christ's name. Let's not leave the mission to just a few.

SOMEBODY ELSE

*There is a clever young person named "Somebody Else"
And there's nothing this person can't do.
He's busy from morning 'til way late at night just substituting for you.
You're asked to do this or you're asked to do that and what is your ready reply?
"Find someone else, please, who can do it better than I.
There's much to do in this parish, so much and the workers are few.
And somebody is getting weary and worn just substituting for you.
So when asked to do something worth while, just give an honest reply:
"If someone else gives his time and support, you bet your last dime, so can I."*

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles:

A young man came home from the office and found his bride sobbing convulsively. "I feel terrible," she told me. "I was pressing your suit and I burned a big hole right in the seat of your trousers." "Forget it," consoled her husband. "Remember that I've got an extra pair of pants for that suit." "Yes, and it's lucky you have," said his wife, drying her eyes. "I used them to patch the hole."

A multi millionaire was asked by the students at his alma mater, how he got rich. "Well", he said, "I bought vegetables, fruit and eggs, from farmers and I sold them for double what I bought them for. I worked long and hard all weekends and holidays. Then after ten years my father died and left me a chain of gas stations."

An English Teacher in college writes this sentence on the board.
"A woman without her man is nothing."
He tells his students to use proper punctuation.
A male student wrote, "A woman, without her man, is nothing."
A female student wrote, "A woman: without her, man is nothing."

Domingo de Pentecostés 8 de junio de 2014

Entonces aparecieron lenguas de fuego, que se distribuyeron y se posaron sobre ellos.

— Hechos 2:3

RECIBAN EL ESPÍRITU SANTO

¡Al fin! El poder que les había sugerido y el Espíritu que les prometió, sólo se libera este día. Lo llamamos el cumpleaños de la Iglesia. Trata de leer los pasajes de la Escritura de hoy con algún sentido de lo extraordinario que esos hechos debieron ser para los que los vivieron. Los dejamos la semana pasada esperando en la habitación del piso de arriba. En la lectura de la primera lectura, la habitación se llena de fuego, viento y audaces proclamaciones en lenguas extranjeras.

En la segunda lectura, Pablo describe el acontecimiento de Pentecostés, también. Su descripción incluye a todos nosotros. El Espíritu vive en la Iglesia en cada uno de nosotros que somos miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo, con diferentes dones pero el mismo Espíritu. Sólo después de Pentecostés pudieron los apóstoles mirar el pasado y entender el significado de lo que Jesús quiso decirles cuando expresó lo que nos cuenta el Evangelio de hoy: “Reciban el Espíritu Santo”.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Quedaron llenos del Espíritu Santo y se pusieron a hablar idiomas distintos (Hechos 2:1-11).

Salmo — Envía, Señor, tu Espíritu, y renueva la tierra (Salmo 104 [103]).

Segunda lectura — Hay diferentes dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo (1 Corintios 12:3b-7, 12-13).

Evangelio — Así como el Padre me envió a mí, así yo los envío a ustedes (Juan 20:19-23).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 9 de junio del año 1597, falleció el jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo “apóstol de Brasil” fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y evangelizadores en Brasil. Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupí, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina. Eventualmente fundó el colegio jesuita de São Paulo de Piratinga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el Evangelio en Brasil, país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el “santo volador” por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el Evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dice el profeta Isaías: “Que hermosos son los pies del que trae buena nuevas” (Isaías 52:7).
