“Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar,
and to God what belongs to God.”

— Matthew 22:21

EVERYTHING BELONGS TO GOD

The first reading from the prophet Isaiah concerns the Persian King Cyrus, called the Lord’s “anointed.” Cyrus deserves this title because he ended the Babylonian captivity of the Jews. However, Isaiah reminds us that it was God who gave Cyrus his power. He may be a great king, but “I am the LORD and there is no other,” says God (Isaiah 45:5).

Today’s Gospel is also concerned with worldly power. In the passage from Matthew, the Pharisees try to trick Jesus into speaking against the emperor. His famous answer is the perfect reply. Like the kings of old, Caesar can be given the respect due his position, but everything belongs to God.

In the second reading, Paul gives thanks for all who are faithful to Jesus Christ and his gospel. He, too, reminds us that our call and the power to be faithful come from God.

GOD'S PRESENCE
(Auburn)

A young student asked the Man of God, "Why did God choose the humble thorn bush as the place from which to speak to Moses?" The Holy man replied, "maybe God chose the thorn bush to show us that there is no place on earth, however humble, that is without the "Holy Presence of God."

St. Teresa of Avila, 1994

Where do we find God's Presence today? This last Monday in our R.C.I.A meeting each person shared where in life they felt God was seeking them and taking care of them. Matthew, a young man, shared how he felt God was always present to him. He said, "I'm adopted and Loved by God." Matthew led the way, all shared, and the loving Presence of God was poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit who sanctified our evening.

On Tuesday I was part of a group "The Right Hand of Auburn" who are trying to find a humble place for the homeless in Auburn. Around the parish rectory table were professionals, business people and church leaders. Each, because of their love for God's poor, brought the special Presence of God to the evening. I would like to thank Dan, Tom, Justin, Brigit, Jan, Gary, Sandy, Suzie, Dirk, Tory, Scott, Dick, Mike, Leo, Jeff and Tom.

Today, Wednesday, our school children gathered for Mass and reflected the Holy and Innocent Presence of God. Along with the universal church we honored our parishes patron saint, St. Teresa of Avila. The second graders proclaimed The of Word of God with great fervor and enthusiasm. They shared St. Teresa's story and prayers. St. Teresa along with the Carmelite Sisters reflected the Presence of God in prayer, poverty, and her writings. The following poem of St. Teresa of Avila, read by a young student shows how all of us can be God's Presence.

CHRIST HAS NO BODY
(St. Teresa of Avila 1515-1582)

*Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which He looks
Compassion on this world.*

*Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which He blesses all the world,
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are His body.*

*Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which He looks
compassion on this world.*

Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

Vigésimo Noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
19 de octubre de 2014

“Den, pues, al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios”.

— Mateo 22:21

TODO PERTENECE A DIOS

La primera lectura del profeta Isaías tiene que ver con el rey persa Ciro, al que Dios llama “elegido”. Ciro merece este título ya que acabó con la cautividad de los judíos en Babilonia. No obstante, Jesús nos recuerda que fue Dios quien dio a Ciro su poder. Quizás sea un gran rey pero, “Yo soy el Señor, y no hay otro igual”, Dios dice (Isaías 45:5).

El Evangelio de hoy también está relacionado con el poder mundano. En el pasaje de Mateo vemos como los fariseos intentan con artimañas que Jesús hable mal del emperador. Su conocida respuesta es la perfecta réplica. Al igual que los reyes de la antigüedad, el César debe ser respetado dada su posición pero todo pertenece a Dios.

En la segunda lectura, Pablo da las gracias por todos los que son fieles a Jesucristo y su Evangelio. También él nos recuerda que nuestra llamada y el poder de ser fieles provienen de Dios.
