“You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
and with all your mind.” — Matthew 22:37

LOVE SHOWN IN ACTION

Do you receive the word of God with joy as the Thessalonians did? Their faith showed in their actions. They became models for other believers.

The first reading tells us to put our faith into action. This passage is part of a long list of ordinances God commanded the Israelites to observe. God will judge us by how we treat our neighbors. God will hear the cries of any whom we neglect or mistreat and will come to their defense.

In today’s Gospel the Pharisees put the question of God’s law to Jesus. “Which commandment of the law is the greatest?” (Matthew 22:36) How could he possibly choose from all the detailed commandments the Jews observed? He was sure to offend somebody by his answer! Of course, Jesus went right to the heart of the matter. Love is the greatest commandment—love of God and love of neighbor. Everything else is based on this.

Baked Potato Potluck on Sunday, November 2 from 6:30 to 8:30 –

At this session, “DEATH – The Fall, Original Sin” we discuss the Fall; the moment when Adam and Eve chose themselves over God, resulting in original sin. Teens will be challenged to recognize the effects of original sin on God’s intended plan for the world, and recognize the necessity of Christ in their redemption.

THE MASTER TEACHER AND HIS DISCIPLES

Jesus was patient in the way He dealt with Peter. He helped him to grow into the man who led the Church and who laid down his life for Christ. When Jesus called Peter He saw the potential in him. We all need someone to believe in us. Peter asked The Lord to leave Him “Lord depart from me, for I am a sinful man”...instead, the Lord invited him to come and follow Him. Christ asked for a commitment as regards The Eucharist, “Will you also go away?” Then Peter made his declaration of faith, “You are The Christ, The Son of The Living God”....Peter denied Jesus, but he was forgiven and given his leadership role. We all need someone who understands us and who does not give up on us. Peter knew that Jesus believed in him and loved him. This was the rock in Peter’s life . . . Belief and Love from Christ.

My favorite Pope is John XXIII. Before his election to the papacy, in his days as Patriarch of Venice, he loved and helped his priests. There was one priest about whom he got many complaints. The priest arrived home one evening to find his Bishop, Cardinal Roncalli waiting for him. He knew why the Cardinal was there, but the Cardinal did not launch into an attack . . . Instead the Cardinal knelt at the feet of the priest and said, “Father, would you please hear my confession?” The belief and the Love of Christ was born again in the visit of a special Bishop with his priest.

We pray always that Christ The Master Teacher will be our guide. Yet, we all need Christ’s Disciples (mentors, parents, teachers, family & friends) to strengthen and develop our beliefs.

Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

26 de octubre de 2014

*“Amarás al Señor, tu Dios,
con todo tu corazón,
con toda tu alma
y con toda tu mente”.*

— Mateo 22:37

EL AMOR ESTÁ EN LA ACCIÓN

¿Recibes la palabra de Dios con gozo, al igual que hicieron los tesalonicenses? Su fe se reflejó en sus acciones. Se convirtieron en ejemplo para otros creyentes.

La primera lectura nos dice que pongamos nuestra fe en acción. Este pasaje es parte de una larga lista de reglas que Dios impone a los israelitas para su observancia y para respetar su Ley. Dios nos juzgará por cómo nosotros tratamos a nuestros semejantes. Dios escuchará los llantos de todo aquel al que desatendemos o maltratamos, y vendrá en su defensa.

En el Evangelio de hoy, los fariseos plantean la cuestión de la Ley de Dios. “¿Cuál es el mandamiento más importante de la Ley?” (Mateo 22:36). ¿Cómo es posible que él pueda elegir de entre todos los detallados mandamientos que los judíos observaban? ¡Sin duda que ofendería a alguien con su respuesta! Sin embargo, Jesús fue derecho al grano. El amor es el más grande de todos los mandamientos, el amor de Dios y el amor del prójimo. Todo lo demás se basa en esto.
