Third Sunday of Lent
March 8, 2015

I, the LORD, am your God . . .

You shall not have other gods besides me.

— Exodus 20:2a, 3

THE PATH TO FREEDOM

Most of us, if we were asked “Does the phrase ‘the Ten Commandments’ appear in the Bible?” would likely get it wrong, because the answer is “no.” “The Ten Commandments” is a post-biblical, phrase that developed along with an image of God as police officer that is not found in today’s passage from Exodus. The first phrase is the key: God is the one who brings us out of slavery; following God’s law or commands is our path to freedom. The moneychangers whom Jesus drove from the temple were not explicitly breaking any of the commandments, but neither were they helping people to find God’s path to freedom as they came to worship at the temple. This is an important Lenten lesson for us. We need to stop asking ourselves whether or not we are breaking specific rules or regulations and instead examine our lives to see if we are truly following a path to God’s freedom through Christ.

THE LORD TAKES A DELIGHT IN HIS PEOPLE

As the Lord takes a delight in us, so do we in our families, neighbors, church and country. I love hearing the news of a new birth, children receiving their First Communion, young people getting married, people finding work, people participating in Church and sports, and the old and the young being generous to those in need.

When our parish youth club (S.T.A.Y.) started, we asked Brenda Fisher to put together a team to work with her. This team have helped our high school students be involved in diocesan and parish programs. Last summer they went on a mission to Mexico. There they worked with young orphans and something beautiful was born. A new Spirit came to life within our youth, their families and our parish. Now over 40 youth enjoy their leadership role in our community.

In 2016 our Holy Father, Pope Francis I, has invited our youth to World Youth Day in Poland. A few years ago I could not have imagined something like this happening for our youth. Now it is a matter of seeing can we get all our youth club to see the Pope in Poland. The blessings they will bring back to our community will be shared by all. Catholics always help their Church. Our youth are the Church of today and tomorrow. Let all of us pitch in and help.

When our youth go to Poland they will carry us with them. We will unite our prayers and offerings to theirs, and like any family we will delight in their good fortune.

Blessed are you, Lord our God,
for you have created a wonderful world
in which we can travel.

We ask your Blessing upon our parish family as our youth prepare to join Pope Francis in Poland.

May you, Holy Guide of travelers,
be their ever-near companion,
and may all of us awaken to your Sacred Presence.
St. Teresa of Avila, pray for us.

God Bless, Fr. Mike

The following statements about the Bible were written by the children.

“In the first book of the Bible, God got tired of creating the world so took the Sabbath off.”

“Moses led the people to the Red Sea where they made unleavened bread, which is bread without any ingredients.”

“The greatest miracle in the Bible is when Joshua told his son to stay still and he did.”

“At the Baptism of Jesus, John the blacksmith dumped water on His head.”

Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma
8 de marzo de 2015

Yo soy el Señor, tu Dios . . .
No tendrás otros dioses fuera de mí.
— Éxodo 20:2a, 3

CAMINO A LA LIBERTAD

La mayoría de nosotros, si nos preguntaran "¿Aparece la frase 'los Diez Mandamientos' en la Biblia?" daríamos la respuesta errónea, pues la respuesta es "no". "Los diez mandamientos" es una frase post-bíblica, que se desarrolló junto con una imagen de Dios como 'policia' la cual no se encuentra en el pasaje de hoy del libro del Éxodo. La primera frase es clave: Dios es el que nos sacó de la esclavitud; cumplir las leyes o mandamientos de Dios es nuestro camino a la libertad. Los cambistas a quienes Jesús echó del templo no estaban violando ninguno de los mandamientos, pero tampoco estaban ayudando a la gente a encontrar el camino hacia la libertad de Dios cuando llegaban al Templo a rezar. Esta es una lección de la Cuaresma importante para nosotros. Tenemos que dejar de preguntarnos si estamos o no violando alguna regla o reglamento específico, y en cambio examinar nuestra vida para ver si verdaderamente estamos siguiendo un camino hacia la libertad de Dios por medio de Cristo.
